The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Christ is Risen, Alleluia! The Light of the World overcomes the darkness of sin through His life giving death and resurrection. We are grateful to celebrate this eternal mystery in full splendor, thanks to those who have provided time, talent, and treasure for this most holy occasion. Special thanks go to our esteemed Director of Music, Philip Lortz, who so wonderfully orchestrates the liturgies that raise our minds, hearts, voices, and instruments to the Lord. Also, gratitude is extended to Ellie Hoeller, Kathy, Miller, Stephanie Epler, and a number of volunteers who transformed the church into the glory of Easter; with the generous help of Easter flower donations by Strader's Garden Center and DeSantis Florists. Furthermore, much thanks go to Sheila O'Sullivan and those who took time to clean the church, as well as our able bodied staff who employed their elbow grease to get in place all the additional chairs. We are indeed very blessed!

Congratulations to the newest members of the parish who were brought into Full Communion of the faith at the Easter Vigil. They are Josh Applebaum, Dan Auld, Becky Berger, Kathi Brown, Jeremy and Kilee Claprod, David Hiser, Barbara Kourie, Michelle Miller, Donna Mobley, Caron Ownsley, Joy Pardi, Zara Petrosian, Jessica Stincer, Rosa Torres, and Shujin Yang. We are inspired by their gift of faith, as well as the faith of their sponsors, whose steady witness has been a godsend. Also, we are very blessed to have Dee and Kris Pellissier share their faith so freely as the Directors of the RCIA program. May the flame of faith be kept burning brightly in your hearts.

Next Sunday, which concludes the eight day celebration of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. At the conclusion of the noon mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed upon the altar, and adoration will take place until 2:30 p.m., at which time Benediction will commence. From 1 p.m. until 2 p.m., the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered and, at 2 p.m., the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed. Through your prayerful and sacramental participation, a Plenary Indulgence can be obtained. This Sunday is also a special time in the life of the Church as the late, great Pope John Paul II will be beatified.

Fr. Michael B. Watson

FISH DINNER NEWS: As we end another successful fish fry season, we would like to start by saying that we owe a huge debt of gratitude to the St. Andrew Parish family. You keep showing us your love by donating your time through volunteering and donating your talents by your confectionery delights. Both of which we could not have done without. As for John Joffre, Barb Zimmerman, and the Rasico family, the hard work that you put in each and every week proves you are Soldiers of the Lord. We also need to thank Patti Beattie for helping with the food orders and Al Hamrick and gang who ensure we have a comfortable setting each week. Look for an announcement soon on information to streamline and break the fish fry into committees. SPIRITUAL ADOPTION MONTH ONE
"My heart started beating today!"

During this first amazing month of life, the baby grows to 10,000 times his size at conception. He is totally dependent upon his mother. Between mother and child lies the vital organ called the placenta. Here, vessels from mother and baby intertwine without joining, highlighting this newly formed relationship—mutual, nourishing and deeply connected. By the third week, the baby's tiny heart begins to beat.
