Through your prayerful and sacramental participation, a Plenary Indulgence can be obtained.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, which concludes the eight day celebration of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. At the conclusion of the noon mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed upon the altar, and adoration will take place until 2:30 p.m., at which time Benediction will commence. From 1 p.m. until 2 p.m., the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered, and at 2 p.m. the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed. Through your prayerful and sacramental participation, a Plenary Indulgence can be obtained. This is also a special time in the life of the Church as the late, great Pope John Paul II will be beatified.

Throughout the season of Lent we offered both fried and baked fish at our Friday dinners. Many thanks to Tom Rasico and his family, along with John Joffre and Barb Zimmerman, for overseeing this important facet of our parish life. It provides a wonderful opportunity for food and fellowship to parishioners, visitors, and St. Andrew wannabees. It appears that the net haul is in the neighborhood of $4,000, which is not a whale of a catch, but does serve a great porpoise.

Many thanks to our Knights of Columbus, under the leadership of Grand Knight George Jones, for spreading 40 cubic yards of mulch around the premises to beautify the landscaped beds. Also, we are very grateful to Tom Kurtz of Kurtz Brothers for donating the mulch. Mulcho gracias!

The Bishop's Annual Appeal formally kicks off this weekend. You have already received material from the diocese as well as yours truly. I will be giving an appeal spiel at all the masses, and attempt to connect the themes of the cause along with Divine Mercy and Easter joy.

Please keep in prayer our second graders who will receive their First Holy Communion next Saturday at a special 11:00 a.m. mass. Also, two of these children will be chosen to crown the Blessed Mother statue at the outdoor grotto during the May crowning ceremony which begins at the conclusion of the noon mass next Sunday. All are invited.

Lastly, you are all invited to attend my 25th Anniversary of Ordination Mass and Reception, which will begin at 3:00 here on Sunday, May 15th. I have been very blessed to be a priest and to be able to serve here!

Fr. Michael B. Watson

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER/DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP

RCIA loosely translates to "Let's take a good long look at the Catholic faith."

At the Easter Vigil last week, 20 men and women blessed St. Andrew parish with their "Yes, I do believe" as they joined the Church.

These new members studied here together with their sponsors every Wednesday night for eight months under the direction of parishioners Dee and Kris Pellissier. In rain and snow and ice and in the dark of winter, they gathered.

They were searching for truth; they were yearning for springtime and Easter.

Their waiting is over.

Welcome home, new Catholics, welcome home!
