Dear Parishioners,

1. Please pray for Fr. Watson while he is on his pilgrimage through Italy. He is praying for us in a special way.
2. Please be especially attentive to the gradual implementation of the corrected translation of the Roman Missal that we are implementing over these weeks, starting with the new music. Phil Lortz is doing a fantastic job and this is a perfect time to consider our own participation in all the music and prayers of the Mass.
3. There are a number of pro-life activities and devotions to Our Lady during this month of October; please see the announcements throughout the bulletin and make it a point to take part in these.

Compiled by Fr. Tomson

Message from Monsignor Grimes:

My thanks to everyone for your prayers and cards and kind thoughts. I am not accepting visitors or calls at this time but know that I miss you, too, and that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

(Mother Angeline McCrory Manor, Room #3203 5199 East Broad Street; Columbus 43213-3800)

THE NEW MISSAL TRANSLATION:

LEARNING THE NEW SONGS 🎵

Our brief music rehearsals will continue before each Mass for the next several weeks as we learn the Holy, Gloria, Mystery of Faith and Amen of the new Mass in Honor of St. Benedict. Thank you for your participation during this important part of the transition process.

For those of you who would like yet another opportunity to learn these pieces of music, you are invited to attend a special session with the choir this Thursday evening, October 20th at 7:00 p.m. This thirty-minute session will allow you to sing each part of the new setting with the leadership and support of the choir. All are welcome.

Dear Parishioners:

Awards and Accolades

Congratulations 2008 St. Andrew School graduate, Maddie McAllister. Maddie, a senior at Bishop Watterson High School, is the recipient of the 2011 Monsignor Spiers Service Award. This honor recognizes individuals who have upheld founding principal Msgr. Spiers' commitment to the Gospel value of service. Recipients are chosen based on the number of hours of service to the community and the longevity and quality of the service performed. St. Andrew School and Parish congratulate Maddie for this outstanding achievement.

Congratulations to 7th grade St. Andrew School student, Kathryn O'Sullivan, on being awarded a Dare to Be Moved BalletMet Dance Scholarship at BalletMet's Dance Academy for the 2011-2012 academic year. In related news, Kathryn will be starring as Clare in BalletMet's performances of The Nutcracker this holiday season. Stay tuned for more information regarding these performances. We are very proud of Kathryn!

Congratulations 2008 St. Andrew School graduate, Shannon Caldwell. Shannon, a senior at Bishop Watterson High School, was recently named an Eddie George Scholar Athlete of the Week. Shannon is the captain of the cross country team and has maintained a 3.9 grade point average. Shannon also participates on the track and field team and spent three years on the girl's soccer team. Shannon has completed more than 180 hours of community service and is a member of the BWHS Ski, Key and Nellie's Clubs. St. Andrew School and Parish congratulate Shannon on being recognized for all of her outstanding achievements.

Congratulations 2010 St. Andrew School graduate, T.J. Valentino. T. J., a sophomore at Worthington Kilbourne High School, was recognized as Student of the Month for September. The Student of the Month program recognizes individuals who have excelled in a variety of ways. Students might excel academically, as a good citizen, through achieving specific goals, or in contributing their services to the school community. T.J. was recognized during a brief ceremony that took place the first week of October and received a school pin to commemorate his achievement. Congratulations, T. J. Valentino.

Terra Nova Testing

The Terra Nova is a set of standardized tests taken by students in grades 3 through 8 at St. Andrew School, throughout the Diocese of Columbus, and across the nation. Terra Nova testing will take place beginning Monday, October 17th and go through Friday, October 21st. It is very important that students in grades 3 through 8 be present throughout this week. Equally important, is that students get plenty of rest and eat a "good" breakfast throughout the week of testing. Testing schedule will be as follows: Monday – In View; Tuesday – Reading/Language Arts; Wednesday – Math; Thursday – Science; Friday – Social Studies.

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP

19th century child’s game

How is stewardship connected to patronizing our advertisers? Remember when you always wanted to get “picked” to be on a team? Our advertisers want to get picked, too, and they buy a small piece of our bulletin to tell us about who they are and what they are offering. They invest a little treasure to tell us about their talent.

Quid pro quo, we would do well to invest a little time into considering their wares and “picking” them when it is to everyone’s benefit.

LIVING THE LIFE OF CHRIST Living the Christ life is not easy. "What material food produces in our bodily life, Holy Communion wonderfully achieves in our spiritual life.
Communion with the flesh of the risen Christ... preserves, increases, and renews the life of grace received at Baptism. This growth in Christian life needs the nourishment of Eucharistic Communion, the bread for our pilgrimage" (CCC 392).

Each Sunday, Catholics return to the Eucharistic table, bringing all the efforts of the previous week, the successes and the failures, the joys and the sorrows. Gathering in the Lord, together with the priest, they join these efforts to the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking that God receive what is offered to him in humble thanksgiving. Then, strengthened by Holy Communion, they are sent forth into the world to glorify the Lord with their lives.

In the Eucharist the sacrifice of Christ becomes also the sacrifice of the members of his Body. The lives of the faithful, their praise, sufferings, prayer, and work, are united with those of Christ and with his total offering, and so acquire a new value. Christ's sacrifice present on the altar makes it possible for all generations of Christians to be united with his offering. (CCC, no. 1368)

THE ROLE OF THE BAPTIZED
When entering into the Mass with bodies, and hearts fully engaged, the people make to God a perfect sacrifice of praise. Those who come together for the Mass are not mere spectators.
"Full, conscious, and actualized participation" in the Mass is not only the right but also the duty and responsibility of all the baptized faithful.
That responsibility includes full engagement

It All Comes Back to the Eucharist throughout the Mass through knowledge and observation of what is happening around them within the context of the Mass. The baptized faithful who form the congregation are called to join in praise and thanksgiving in song and spoken word, to listen attentively to God's Word, and to exercise their baptismal priesthood in prayer for the Church, the world, and all in need during the General Intercessions.

In the Mass, the people join their prayer to that of the priest celebrant, offering Christ the Victim, "not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him," and offer themselves as well (GIRM, no. 95). Their participation culminates in the reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord, the sacrament that unites them more fully with Christ their Head and with one another. There needs to be an awareness that "participation" does not refer primarily to external activity or function during the celebration of Mass; rather, it refers to a deeply spiritual, interior participation of mind and heart, filled with devotion and penetrating the very depths of the mysteries being celebrated.

The Mass brings about in all those who make up the worshipping assembly a "participation of the faithful, namely in body and in mind, a participation fervent with faith, hope, and charity" (GIRM, no. 18). To the extent that participation exists, the work of redemption becomes effective for each person. By such participation, the actions and prayers of the Mass become more personal and allow the faithful to enter more fully into communion with Christ's redeeming act through worship.
