PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners:

Each one of us has a purpose. Sadly, many of us sometime in our life will feel as if we don't have a purpose. We will question if God has forgotten about us.

Today's feast of the birth of St. John the Baptist reminds us that not only do we all have a purpose, but that our purpose was given to us by God from birth. As we heard in the Gospel, the crowd was filled with awe of the infant John the Baptist and asked, "What, then, will this child be? For surely the Lord was with him." The prophet Isaiah in the First Reading will go a step further. He says, "The Lord called me from birth, from my mother's womb he gave me my name."

The Irish priest and poet, John O'Donohue, wrote a powerful prayer to help us know ourselves and our purpose. May this prayer be for each one of us this week:

May you recognize in your life the presence, power and light of your soul.

May you realize that you are never alone, that your soul in its brightness and belonging connects you intimately with the rhythm of the Universe.

May you have respect for your individuality and difference.

May you realize that the shape of your soul is unique, that you have a special destiny here, that behind the façade of your life, there is something beautiful and eternal happening.

May you learn to see yourself with the same delight, pride and expectation with which God sees you in every moment.

Have a good week!
Fr. Tony
