PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners:

I returned to St. Andrew from my summer vacation a week ago, feeling rested and refreshed. Many of you asked me, "How was your vacation?" And I answered, "It was boring – just what I wanted." But I am happy to be back here with all of you. I hope all of you also will have an opportunity for some relaxing and restorative experiences during these slower-paced summer days.

Next weekend, July 7/8, we will welcome Sister Barbara Joseph Lammers of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth for our annual Missionary Appeal. She will speak at all Masses. I hope you will be generous to this mission appeal.

Also, next Sunday, July 8, at 3:00 p.m., there will be a farewell reception for Fr. Tony Davis, which will take place in the parish hall. Please come and show your appreciation for Fr. Tony's service these past three years, and wish him well in his new ministry as pastor of St. Matthias Parish.

May you have a peaceful week!

Your pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney
