Dear Parishioners:

I want to take this opportunity to recognize the retirement of Ann Whiteman, our long-time Business Manager here at St. Andrew Parish, who began her retirement on January 15. Ann has been a faithful and trustworthy administrator for many years, and a great help to me in fulfilling my responsibilities for the administration of the temporal goods of St. Andrew Parish. I want to express my immense gratitude to Ann and wish her much happiness and enjoyment of many carefree days in her retirement.

I also want to introduce to the parish our new Business Manager, Deacon Andy Naporano. He has been on the job already since mid-December, learning the intricacies of this important position and preparing for an orderly transition. Andy is a Permanent Deacon of the Diocese of Columbus and he is assigned to diaconal ministry at St. Margaret of Cortona Parish. He is a retired businessman who has a desire to use his administrative skills and abilities to serve the Church. I am pleased to welcome him to the staff of St. Andrew Parish, and I look forward to working with him.

This week, on January 20th, the inauguration of the President of the United States will take place. There has been much chaos and uncertainty in recent days in our nation. Let us use this occasion to pray for our country and our leaders, for peace and tranquility in our nation and our world. Let us also pray for an early end to the coronavirus pandemic and for the health and safety of all.

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney
