MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As you know, the Eucharistic Revival is taking place across the United States as well as in our Diocese of Columbus and our parish of St. Andrew.

One of the reasons that the bishops of our country feel this revival is necessary is because, according to polls and surveys, many Catholics do not believe the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist is really the Body and Blood of Christ.

Many Catholics no longer believe in the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.

This has been described as a "catastrophe" because the Eucharist is the central mystery of our faith, it is what we celebrate at Mass. In the Holy Eucharist, Christ gives Himself to us, His true Body and Blood, under the appearance of bread and wine. When Jesus declared to His disciples, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise him on the last day." (Jn 6:53-54)

Some of them said, "This is a hard saying; who can accept it?" (Jn 6:60). And they no longer followed Him.

The Eucharistic Revival is needed in order to re-awaken the faith of Catholics in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, such that they do not doubt that they receive the true Body and Blood of Christ when they receive Holy Communion. Whenever a Catholic receives Communion, the priest or minister of Communion holds up the host and says to the communicant, "The Body of Christ." The communicant is supposed to answer by saying, "Amen." That "Amen" is a declaration of faith, affirming that the communicant does in fact believe that they are receiving the true Body of Christ.

But what if they receive it without really believing that? Our senses tell us it is bread and wine – only faith can see the Real Presence of Christ.

St. Paul in the first letter to the Corinthians, after describing the Institution of the Eucharist by Jesus Himself at the Last Supper warns us: "Whoever eats the bread and drinks the cup unworthily will have to answer for the Body and Blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself." (1 Cor 11:27-29)

This is why it is SO VERY IMPORTANT that in this time of Eucharistic Revival, we awaken our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

The Mass

✙ "Do This in Remembrance of Me" ✙ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 4: Entrance Hymn/Antiphon

Now that we have reminded ourselves of our Baptism (holy water), given reverence to Jesus present in the tabernacle (genuflection), and quietly said our prayers of preparation, we are ready to stand for the Introductory Rites. For most parishes, these rites will begin with a hymn or the Entrance Antiphon.

There is no doubt that everyone has their "special way" of singing during the Mass. Some really belt out the song, whether they have a pleasant voice or not. Some lightly mumble the words so that even if they had a microphone, you could barely hear them. Some seemingly know the songs so well that they don't even open the books! Some must have such a deep interior connection with God that they don't even sing out loud—just in their hearts!

Let us pray

Why do we sing? Looking back in our history and to the Jewish roots of our liturgy, we see that music and singing is an important part of our prayer together. Singing is one of the most fitting praises for God, since it involves the body and soul even more than speaking. (Singing is a lot more work than speaking!) When we sing, we use our whole beings to praise God. The General Instruction for the Roman Missal explains the importance of singing:

"The Christian faithful who come together as one in expectation of the Lord's coming are instructed by the Apostle Paul to sing together Psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles (cf. Col 3:16). Singing is the sign of the heart's joy (cf. Acts 2:46). Thus St. Augustine says rightly, 'Singing is for one who loves,' and there is also the ancient proverb: 'Whoever sings well prays twice over'" (GIRM, no. 39).

Given these admonitions, "Great importance should therefore be attached to the use of singing in the celebration of the Mass" (GIRM, no. 40).

At the beginning of Mass, the most common options for the "Entrance Chant" are an Entrance Hymn or Entrance Antiphon. The purpose of singing at this time is "to open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical time or festivity, and accompany the procession of the Priest and ministers" (GIRM, no. 47). The Entrance Hymn or Antiphon helps us to "get into" what we are about to do; it helps us set aside everything else that is going on in our lives and helps us to prepare our hearts to praise God and participate in the Mass. This singing especially reminds us that we are a community, because it is the first act that we all do together at the Mass.

"Be not afraid!"

I often hear individuals say, "I feel self-conscious because my voice is terrible!" To quote our Lord, Pope St. John Paul II, and many others: "Be not afraid!" God gave you the voice you have, and in singing praise to him, you are offering the gifts (or lack thereof) that he gave you. So, pick up that hymnal and join the song!

For Reflection:

1. Reflect on your participation at Mass as an opportunity to fulfill the exhortation of Psalm 96: "Sing to the LORD a new song;/ sing to the LORD, all the earth./ Sing to the LORD, bless his name;/ proclaim his salvation day after day." (Ps. 96:1-2)

2. Both the Old and New Testament offer many examples of individuals responding in songs, or "Canticles," to God's saving action, such as Moses and Miriam (Ex. 15:1-21), Moses (Dt. 32:1-44), Hannah (1 Sm. 2:1-10), David (1 Chr. 29:10-13), Tobit (Tb. 13:1-8), Judith (Jdt. 16:13-17), Sirach (Sir. 1:1-13), Isaiah (Is 20:1-6; 45:15-25), Jeremiah (Jer. 31:10-14), Daniel (Dn. 3:52-88), Habakkuk (Hab. 3:2-19), Zechariah (Lk. 1:68-79), the Blessed Virgin Mary (Lk. 1:46-55), and Simeon (Lk. 2:29-32). Take time to meditate on a scriptural Canticle and see how God moves you to respond.
