MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As we approach the middle of October, I just want to give a few reminders.

The Eucharistic Revival Small Group Study Sessions are underway! Last Monday (October 9), was the first session and it was very successful. There were more than 60 people present. We began with prayer, watched a video that was very focused and meaningful, and engaged in table discussions with fellow parishioners and others who joined us. The session lasted from 7:00 p.m. until just before 9:00 p.m., but was most meaningful and enlightening. As I said last week, we at St. Andrew need the Eucharistic Revival, because we need to better appreciate and live out the mystery of Christ's sacrifice of His Body and Blood made present in every Mass. I hope more of you will come and participate in the remaining six sessions. The study sessions are held on Monday evenings through November 20 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Secondly, Election Day is November 7, and that is not far away. Early voting has already begun. We have been working and praying for the defeat of Issue 1, the ballot measure that, if passed, would enshrine abortion rights into the Ohio Constitution. Your "NO" vote on Issue 1 is very much needed to defeat this threat to human life. The issue is not merely political, but a moral issue. Also, it is a very politically contentious issue, and the campaigns on both sides of this issue will be heating up even more in the next few weeks. Just to give an example of this, I placed two yard signs saying "Vote NO on Issue 1" on the church property facing McCoy Road on Monday, October 9. They were taken away by the next day! But don't be confused, there is only one morally acceptable option for a properly-formed Catholic conscience to choose on November 7. NO on Issue 1.

Finally, I want to let you know that we are already making progress in our efforts to improve the sound system in the church. Our acoustical experts pointed out that background noise from the air handlers in the church was interfering with the public address system. As an experiment, the fans have been adjusted to a lower speed, reducing the background noise. I noticed an immediate improvement in sound quality, as I could easily hear the people's responses and singing, which previously, were difficult to hear. I would be interested to hear from you if you have noticed an improvement in your ability to hear the readings, homily and prayers at Mass. We will continue to experiment until we find a lasting solution!

May God bless you all, and St. Andrew Parish!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

ST. ANDREW KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 11275 invites you to participate in the Knights of Columbus initiative called Aid and Support After Pregnancy (ASAP).

In June of 2022, the US Supreme Court upheld a Mississippi law banning abortion after 15 weeks of pregnancy, concurrently overturning Roe v. Wade, the landmark ruling that legalized abortion nearly 50 years ago. Through ASAP, the Knights of Columbus is now strengthening support for pregnancy resource centers here in Columbus and we are asking you to consider lending your support to either the Women's Care Center or Pregnancy Decision Health Center by using the QR code.

The National KofC Council will match each council's $500 donation with an extra $100 up to a maximum of $400.

Check out the YouTube video that details how the Knights of Columbus councils across the country are lending support to this important, life-saving initiative: www.youtube.com/watch?v=EtMtDDLm47U

The Mass

✚ "Do This in Remembrance of Me" ✚ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 8: Penitential Act

After the priest's greeting and people's response at the beginning of the Mass, we next share in the Penitential Act. If you think that sounds like penance, don't worry—it's a good thing! During the entrance rite, we recall that we are in the presence of God. If we are truly sincere in realizing that God (who is all-holy) is in our midst, then we recognize the need for purification. We recognize that when we encounter God, we must draw near with a pure heart. So, we take a brief moment of silence to call to mind our sins and failings, and we ask the Lord to forgive and heal us. After our time of silence, the priest (or deacon) leads the community in praying one of three possible prayers (conveniently known as options A, B, and C—more on them next time).

History of the Penitential Act

Like nearly every part of the Holy Sacrifice, we find descriptions of the Penitential Act in early descriptions of the Mass. One of these, the Didachē (pronounced: did-uh-kay), meaning Teaching of the Apostles, gives instructions for Christians celebrating the Eucharist: "Assemble on the Lord's Day, and break bread and offer the Eucharist; but first make confession of your faults, so that your sacrifice may be a pure one" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 32). As Father Guy Oury notes, "For a long time in the past this rite concerned only the celebrant and his ministers. Before going up to the altar they remained in silent prayer, lying face to the floor, as is still done in the liturgy of Good Friday" (The Mass, p. 49). So that everyone present could be more actively involved in this important part of the Mass, our current options came into use. Besides, except for some of our little ones, it would be really hard for everyone to lie down on the floor inside the pews!

How to Participate

This honest look inside ourselves during the Penitential Act helps us to be aware of our sin and, most importantly, our need for God to help us overcome sin. In a very practical way, this brief reflection recalls the places in our lives where we know we need Christ more. If you haven't yet thought of an intention to join together with the priest's offering of the Mass, this might be a great time to ask specifically for help in overcoming a particular sin or perhaps further healing from the effects of previous sins. We believe that the Mass is our most powerful prayer together because Jesus himself is truly present and we are joining together with Him in the perfect worship of God the Father. In the Mass we take part in the one perfect sacrifice of the Cross where Christ offered Himself so that our sins could be forgiven. Realizing Jesus will be present on the altar or thinking about how the Mass is a sharing in the Cross, this moment can actually be one of great hope. What a great gift!

During this part of the Mass, as you recall your sins, you might feel unworthy of what we are about to celebrate. Although it may be uncomfortable to think about where we need healing and growth, it is actually a good sign of grace at work in our hearts. We are made out of love for love. We are made for life and communion with God and each other. Of course, sin disrupts and breaks that communion: sin moves us away from where we belong. The reason we feel frustrated or embarrassed or sad when we think of our sins is that we know deep inside that sin is contrary to the life to which God calls us. Hopefully, that discomfort will spur us to seek out the forgiveness of Christ through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Sometimes We Use Water Instead

For a little bonus info: Have you ever noticed during this time that the priest might walk around with Holy Water instead? As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, "From time to time on Sundays, especially in Easter Time, instead of the customary Penitential Act, the blessing and sprinkling of water may take place as a reminder of Baptism" (GIRM, no. 51). As people from my parishes could tell you, this is often one of my favorite parts of the Mass! Using an aspergillum (typically a small reservoir with a sponge inside on the end of a handle, sometimes referred to as a sprinkler) or perhaps even an evergreen branch, the priest will dip it into the water and then sprinkle the water over the people. As when we talked about using the Holy Water upon entering the church, this water recalls our baptism and the joy of being freed by Christ from sin. No wonder the priest is often so generous with the Holy Water at this part of the Mass!

For Reflection:

1. Slowly pray Psalm 51 as a way of preparing for the Penitential Act. (Notice that verse 9 refers to being cleansed by "hyssop," a branch serving the function of the aspergillum.) Which words or phrases speak to you as you seek forgiveness and healing? Keep these words in mind next time you participate in Mass.
2. Read the first portion of Luke's account of the Risen Lord's appearance to two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-24). Observe how Jesus invites the disciples to share what they are discussing and how freely they express what is on their minds and hearts. Place yourself in this scene. What do you want to express to the Lord as he invites you to "[p]our out your hearts to God" (Ps. 62:9)? Approach the Penitential Act with this same freedom to place your total self before the Lord.
