MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As the month of October marches onward, I want to mention a few happenings in the life of our parish.

First of all, thanks to the young people who volunteered to become altar servers and who came to the training session last Sunday afternoon. I was very pleased with the eagerness and enthusiasm demonstrated by this group of recruits. I firmly believe that being on the altar and serving at Mass is the best way to understand and appreciate the Mass. I look forward to having all of them assist at Mass and minister at the altar.

During this time of Eucharistic Revival, we are working on several efforts to re-awaken our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Revival Small Group Study Sessions are underway, and our parish mission event with Dr. Edward Sri is set for December 6. I also want to mention that one of my hopes for the Eucharistic Revival is to draw more people to Adoration of the Holy Eucharist. In particular, I hope to promote Eucharistic Adoration for our young people. On October 31, our weekly Eucharistic Adoration will begin at 6:00 p.m. as usual, but we are especially inviting our youth to "spend time with Jesus." Then, on the weekend of November 4 and 5, Fr. Joe Laramie, an official "Eucharistic preacher," will be at St. Andrew Parish and preach at all Masses that weekend.

These are some of the many ways we are trying to reach our people to build up their eucharistic faith!

May God bless you all during these beautiful autumn days!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

ST. ANDREW KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 11275 invites you to participate in the Knights of Columbus initiative called Aid and Support After Pregnancy (ASAP).

In June of 2022, the US Supreme Court upheld a Mississippi law banning abortion after 15 weeks of pregnancy, concurrently overturning Roe v. Wade, the landmark ruling that legalized abortion nearly 50 years ago. Through ASAP, the Knights of Columbus is now strengthening support for pregnancy resource centers here in Columbus and we are asking you to consider lending your support to either the Women's Care Center or Pregnancy Decision Health Center by using the QR code.

Check out the YouTube video that details how the Knights of Columbus councils across the country are lending support to this important, life-saving initiative: www.youtube.com/watch?v=EtMtDDL47U

The National KofC Council will match each council's $500 donation with an extra $100 up to a maximum of $400.

The Mass

✚ "Do This in Remembrance of Me" ✚ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 9: The Forms of the Penitential Act

As we mentioned last time, the Penitential Act has three different forms. Why are there three? For starters, each of these three prayers have been present in liturgical celebrations since the early days of the Church. Although they are similar in that they each acknowledge the truth about God (he is merciful) and us (we need mercy), they each do so in a different way.

Form A, the Confiteor, is hopefully a familiar prayer beginning with the words: "I confess to Almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters..." This prayer helps us to express sorrow for faults we have committed in word and in action. We humbly acknowledge that we have done wrong and also that we have sometimes failed to do good. Then, recognizing that we all need help, we ask the intercession of our Blessed Mother, all the other saints, and our brothers and sisters around us. In many ways, this is a great prayer for reminding us that we are all in the Christian life together.

Within the text of the Roman Missal, we are instructed to strike the breast during the words "through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault" (corresponding to the three "mea culpa" phrases of the Latin version). Throughout the Bible, striking the breast is a gesture of humility and sorrow for sins. Why three times? As Edward Sri indicates, the threefold repetition of fault "more fully expresses sorrow over our sins. [...] This line in the liturgy helps us recognize that sinning against God is no light matter. We must take responsibility for whatever wrong we have done, or the good that we should have done but failed to do." Sri observes, "The Confiteor also challenges us to consider seriously four areas in which we may have fallen into sin: 'In my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do.' These four points serve as an excellent examination of conscience" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 33, 35).

Form A can be replaced by either Forms B or C, both of which take their inspiration from the Book of Psalms (Psalm 51, for example). Form B is less frequently practiced and thus not as well-known. The presider prays, "Have mercy on us, O Lord," and the people respond, "For we have sinned against you." The presider continues, "Show us, O Lord, your mercy," and the people again respond, "And grant us your salvation." This form, the ending of which recalls Psalm 85:8, acknowledges that we have sinned and asks for the Lord's love and mercy.

For Form C, the Missal provides eight suggestions for use in the United States. Each of these involves the repetition of the words: "Lord have mercy... Christ have mercy... Lord have mercy." Each verse of this form begins with a statement of acknowledgement about Jesus, called a trope, usually about his mission (e.g., "you came to call sinners") or his person (e.g., "you are Mighty God and Prince of Peace"). These short verses help remind us who Jesus is and what he does for us. Why does the Church offer so many different sets of these prayers? Because Jesus is so wonderful! Even these 24 statements can't express everything about our loving Savior. Imagine how many different verses would be possible if we wanted to include every aspect of our Savior's love for us!

As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, "After the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, eleison (Lord, have mercy), is always begun, unless it has already been part of the Penitential Act" (GIRM, no. 52). Regarding the Kyrie, Edward Sri notes, "This three-fold plea for God's mercy fittingly flows after the three-fold admission of one's sin in the previous prayer, the Confiteor." Sri goes on to say, "While the Kyrie is primarily an expression of repentance, it also can be seen as a petition, a prayer representing the cry of God's people for assistance in their lives" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 36, 39). All this talk about the Lord's mercy makes me feel very loved and hopeful for the graces to come in the rest of the Mass!

For Reflection:

1. Pray Psalm 85, noting the plea: "grant us your salvation" (v. 8). Seek and find encouragement in the promises the Lord speaks to his people in this psalm.
2. Practice lectio divina with Luke 18:9-14. Imagine yourself as the Pharisee taking stock of his good qualities. In what do you boast or take pride? Imagine yourself as the penitent tax collector, who strikes his breast and asks for mercy. Where do you need the Lord's mercy in your life at this time?
