MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I want to welcome Fr. Joe Laramie S.J. to St. Andrew Parish this weekend. Fr. Joe will be preaching at all Masses November 4 and 5. Fr. Joe is an official Eucharistic Preacher and I invited him to come to St. Andrew and speak to us to revive and renew our Eucharistic faith and promote the National Eucharistic Revival right here in our parish. Please welcome Fr. Joe and listen carefully to his message.

Bishop Fernandes also has an important message for all of us this weekend regarding opposition to Issue 1. Election day is around the corner, and our Bishop asked that his message be given at all Masses. Because Fr. Joe is speaking at all Masses this weekend, I have included the text of Bishop's message in this bulletin, as well as information and links to the video version. Please read this important message, and most of all, vote "NO" on Issue 1 on November 7.

I also want to announce a special event coming in December and ask you to mark your calendars now and plan to attend. On Monday, Dec. 11, at 7:00 p.m., retired Army Brigadier General Mark Arnold will present a very informative program about the war in Ukraine and invite your support for the Frontline Medical Ukraine Fund, which Mark formed to help medics better care for injured soldiers and reduce the deaths and amputations that have occurred and could be prevented if medics were better trained. Mark is a member of St. Andrew Parish and is passionate about this cause. I believe St. Andrew parishioners will want to hear his observations from his tours in Ukraine, and support this very worthwhile cause. His efforts have received considerable positive publicity and support, including from our own Bishop Fernandes. You will see more information in the bulletin and other parish communications in the weeks ahead. Please save the date of December 11 and plan to attend this important event.

This month of November, we hold in remembrance all of the faithful departed, especially those dearest to us.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace ~ Amen!

Your Pastor,

Mmgr. Stephan Moloney

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER is a special time in our Catholic tradition for remembering our departed loved ones. Please join us TODAY, Sunday, Nov. 5, at 3 p.m., for a special service of Evening Prayer and Song in remembrance of loved ones who have passed away. The service will include Psalms, choral anthems, congregational hymns, readings and reflections of remembrance, hope, and consolation, within the Church's celebration of Evening Prayer. All are welcome. For those who cannot attend, the service will also be livestreamed at StAndrewParishLive.com.

The Students and Staff of St. Andrew School wish to HONOR THE VETERANS OF OUR PARISH on Wednesday, Nov. 8, during the all-school Mass at 8:30 a.m. Veterans are invited to sit in the reserved pews at the front of the church. If a student has a relative attending, they may sit with their relative. We are asking that you complete the Google form at tinyurl.com/honor-SAP-veterans, or email Chris Woodlan at cwoodlan@cducation.org so that we know how many will be attending. You may also call the school office at 614-451-1626 to RSVP. Coffee and doughnuts will be provided immediately after Mass in the Parish Hall for the Veterans and their relatives.

PLEASE ASK OUR LORD for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

The Charitable IRA Rollover allows donors who are 70 ½ years or older to transfer up to $100,000 from a traditional or Roth IRA to a qualified charity like The Catholic Foundation, which manages the St. Andrew Parish Endowment Fund. The color gold has been chosen because of its association with instruments, celebration, and performance. Priests from the Diocese are welcome to concelebrate with Bishop Earl Fernandes for this joyful and majestic liturgy, enhanced by the exquisite music of Palestrina, Orlando di Lasso, and current Mass settings by Dr. Fitzgerald. Musicians from various parishes will be participating along with the renowned Cathedral choir, and all will be uplifted by the magnificent resonance of the Fritts Grand Gallery organ. Priests desiring to concelebrate should RSVP to the Chancery Office. Following the Mass, all are invited to a reception in the undercroft to congratulate and thank the musicians.

CATHOLIC MEN'S LUNCHEON, FRIDAY, DEC. 1: Join us at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for a luncheon featuring his Excellency Bishop Earl Fernandes, who will present his annual address to the Luncheon Club. The December luncheon is sponsored by The Catholic Foundation. Started in 1984, the Catholic Foundation has provided over $200 million in funding for organizations throughout the Columbus Diocese and beyond. More information about the Catholic Foundation is available at <https://catholic-foundation.org/>. If you are interested in sponsoring a luncheon, please contact Pat Foley at foleyp513@gmail.com. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Bishop Fernandes' presentation. No reservations are necessary. $12 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend! There is no luncheon in January, but plan on attending our luncheon on Friday, February 2, 2024, when Bishop Fernandes will return to present the Catholic Man of the Year Award.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend I address all Catholics throughout the Diocese of Columbus. This coming Tuesday, there will be a very important vote regarding enshrining abortion in the Constitution of Ohio. I urge all of you who have not yet voted to vote No on Issue 1. No in November. I encourage you to invite your family members, friends, neighbors, and coworkers to vote No. If you know an elderly or homebound person who needs transportation, offer to drive them so that they can participate in the political process. Our No to this amendment is an expression of our great Yes to the gift of human life and to God Himself.

Two Sundays ago, Jesus said in the Gospel: “Render unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar and unto God what belongs to God.” God is the author of life and Lord of all creation. After making man and woman in His image and likeness, He declared His creation to be very good. We are called to be stewards of creation and to give back to God what belongs to God. Look around you – your fellow parishioners, infants in their mothers’ arms, your spouse – they all have dignity and value. Each is a masterpiece of God, made in His image, bearing His likeness. We are to render unto God what belongs to God, offering Him our very lives.

Last Sunday, Jesus summarized the law and prophets in two commandments: love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself. To love God only with our lips is not enough. We show our love of God by loving our neighbor, including the unborn. I am astounded by how many people, especially Catholics, tirelessly serve the poor and accompany women and their children – at the Pregnancy Decision Health Centers, the Women’s Care Center, at the St. Vincent de Paul Centers throughout the Diocese; through Seton Housing, sheltering the homeless; at food pantries and soup kitchens; and through our Catholic healthcare ministries and visits to the sick and elderly. Our responsibility to our neighbor extends far beyond the womb. Many of our parishes carry out the Walking with Moms Initiative. We commit ourselves to accompanying women, their children, and their families.

Nevertheless, I urge you to vote No because if the rights of the unborn are not protected then other populations too become vulnerable. Pope Francis has said:

“Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this. Frequently, as a way of ridiculing the Church’s effort to defend their lives, attempts are made to present her position as ideological, obscurantist and conservative. Yet this defense of unborn life is closely linked to the defense of each and every other human right.

It involves the conviction that a human being is always sacred and inviolable, in any situation and at every stage of development. Human beings are ends in themselves and never a means of resolving other problems. Once this conviction disappears, so do solid and lasting foundations for the defense of human rights, which would always be subject to the passing whims of the powers that be. Reason alone is sufficient to recognize the inviolable value of each single human life, but if we also look at the issue from the standpoint of faith, “every violation of the personal dignity of the human being cries out in vengeance to God and is an offence against the creator of the individual” (Evangelii Gaudium 213)

To protect the rights of the vulnerable, I urge you to vote No. I also urge you to vote No, not only because this amendment would permit abortion even in the latest stages of pregnancy, but also because it takes rights away from parents in making decisions regarding their minor children. The amendment does not apply to adults but says any individual. The amendment is not restricted to permitting abortion; the language says “reproductive decisions”, which would also include gender reassignment, without parental consent or knowledge.

The amendment puts women at risk by making it nearly impossible to prosecute those who have abused women or female minors and who pressure them to have abortions and those women who have been trafficked, who subsequently are pressured into ending their pregnancy. Issue 1 simply goes too far – even for some who identify as pro-choice.

This is not merely a political issue; it is fundamentally a moral issue. Will we accept our responsibility as Catholics to protect the rights of parents, vulnerable women, and the unborn? Will we acknowledge God as the Lord of Life?

In this Sunday's Liturgy, Paul invites us to draw near to the Gospel “not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God”. Jesus offers a warning to our conscience to conform our way of living to it. In today's passage, He rebukes the scribes and the Pharisees for their hypocrisy. Jesus notes that they “preach, but do not practice” ; rather “they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger.”

Catholics throughout the Diocese are lifting their hands and voices to lighten the burdens of women and children, but we need your help to be the people that God has called us to be – a people of life, a people who celebrate life, nourish life, cherish life, and protect and defend life. I urge you to vote No in November. No matter how the election goes, the day after the election, there will still be women who are contemplating abortion, and we need to be there to offer support so that they know they can say Yes to life – to assure them of a network of support, to remind them that they and their children are loved. We need to make abortion unthinkable.

By voting No in November, we will offer the answer to the question of Malachi the prophet in the first reading: “Have we not all the one father? Has not the one God created us? Why then do we break faith with one another?” We are part of the same human family. Jesus Himself says in the Gospel, “You are all brothers ... you have but one Father in heaven.”

At the end of November, we will celebrate the Feast of the Christ the King. The Gospel that day is the separation of the sheep from the goats – the Last Judgment. Christ will say, “Whatever you did for the least of my brothers and sisters, you did for me.” Stand beside the least of our brothers and sisters, defending their right to life, acknowledging that there is one God and Father of us all. Say Yes to God and human life. Vote No in November.
