MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you are staying warm in these frigid, freezing January days we have been experiencing! I also hope you find St. Andrew Church to be a warm and welcoming place where you can experience the love of God and the warmth of human kindness!

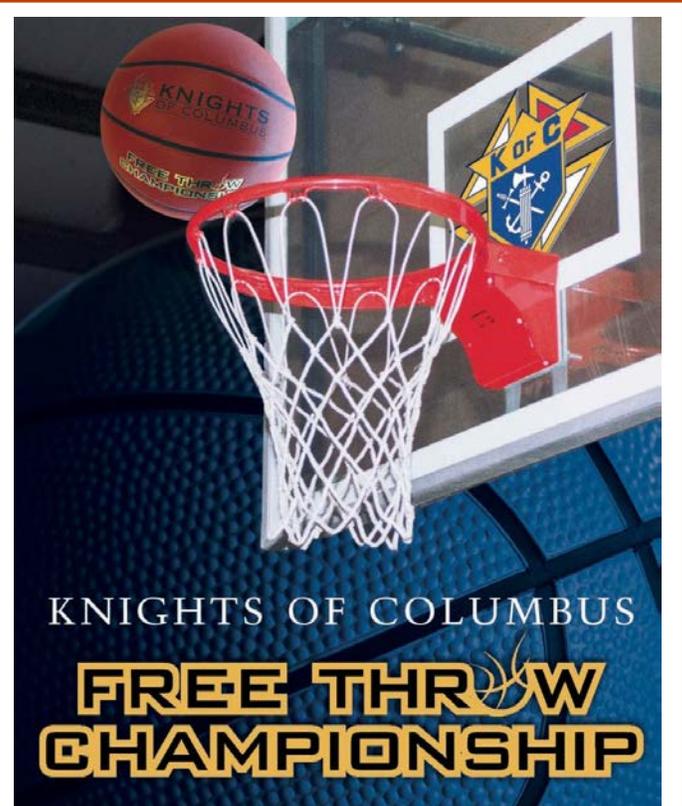

I want to let you know about an upcoming effort in the Diocese of Columbus to support vocations to the priesthood and seminarian expenses. The Diocese is launching a five-week effort entitled, "A Good and Growing Need." The purpose of this effort is to raise awareness that there has been growth in the number of vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Columbus – there are 16 additional potential seminarians just this year! What a blessing for which we offer thanks to God! But the cost of formation for these seminarians is $55,000 per year per seminarian. That is the "good and growing need." Because of this influx of seminarians, there is an immediate need to raise additional resources to support their formation and education. You will see information about this need over the next few weeks.

The diocesan Office of Communications and the Office of Vocations will be getting the word out, and we will pass this information on to you. This effort will also include a special collection throughout the diocese on the weekend of February 24-25 to raise funds for this "good and growing need." I hope you will pay attention to the information that is offered in the coming weeks, and also that you will generously support the second collection that will be taken up on the last weekend of February.

May God bless you – and stay warm!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

USHERS AND GREETERS NEEDED

Consistent with our Eucharistic Revival goal of encouraging greater participation in the Liturgy, anyone interested in serving as an usher or greeter is asked to please consider serving in these important laity roles. This is a great way to get to know your fellow parishioners, the Priests and Deacons. Volunteers for these ministries should be Protecting God's Children compliant.

Role of the Greeter: Be visible in the Vestibule at least 15 minutes before Mass; offer a warm hello, a kind smile and hand out music sheets to parishioners as they enter the church.

Role of the Usher: Similar to the Greeter, offer a friendly hello and also help find seating, arrange for Gift Bearers and gather the collection.

We hope to make signing up to serve in these roles easier by adding Ushers and Greeters to the Ministry Scheduler. For more information, contact Kent Simmons at simmonskent0@gmail.com or 614-309-3627.

MILLIONS OF MONICAS KICKS OFF IN FEBRUARY!

Mark your calendar for Monday, February 12, for the kickoff of "Millions of Monicas" at St. Andrew Parish, from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in the Church. Join other Catholic women who are called by the Holy Spirit to imitate St. Monica by attending this prayer ministry.

Like St. Monica, we pray for our children to return to the practice of their Catholic faith, and for our children to always stay close to their faith. We are a group of mothers, young and old, who believe in the mother's power of prayer.

The Millions of Monicas' mission is to encounter God through prayer for ourselves and our children and to grow in holiness and humility.

If you would like more information about this new prayer ministry at St. Andrew Parish, contact Amy Tague, at amyliss14@gmail.com.

MUSIC MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES: The new year is a great time to explore new opportunities! The St. Andrew music program invites you to consider our upcoming offerings.

HANDBELL CHOIR: Now that many of you have heard our handbells, perhaps you'd like to join us and see if this ensemble might be a good fit for you. Rehearsals are held on Wednesday evenings on a seasonal basis, and introductory tutoring sessions will be offered for new ringers. No previous ringing experience is necessary, but a basic knowledge of music reading is helpful.

RESURRECTION CHOIR: This choir sings for all parish funerals and is open to both men and women. The time commitment is minimal, but the ministry is extremely meaningful. This choir is an especially good option for those who enjoy singing and have flexibility with their daytime (morning) schedule.

SUNDAY CHOIR: Our Sunday Choir rehearses on Thursday evenings and sings for the 9:15 Sunday Mass in addition to other Holy Days and special occasions. The choir is open to adult men and women and currently asks for only an eight-week commitment from singers. This group is on winter break until February.

If you're interested in becoming a part of any of these adult ensembles, attending a rehearsal (with no obligation to join), or simply learning more about our musical offerings, contact Music Director Phil Lortz at plortz@standrewparish.cc or 614-451-1839.

The Mass

✠ "Do This in Remembrance of Me" ✠ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 12: Collect

A Prayer in Four Parts

"Let us pray..." After the Gloria, the priest sings or says this invitation to pray. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal describes, "Next the Priest calls upon the people to pray and everybody, together with the Priest, observes a brief silence so that they may become aware of being in God's presence and may call to mind their intentions. Then the priest pronounces the prayer usually called the 'Collect' and through which the character of the celebration finds expression" (GIRM, no. 54). Charles Belmonte notes it is "called the Collect because it sums up and gathers together all the intentions of the day's sacrifice" (Understanding the Mass, p. 65).

According to Belmonte, the Collect has a standard structure of four parts: an invocation to God, the grounds on which we base our confidence (or a reference to the feast of the day), a petition, and a conclusion (see p. 66). For example, we see these four parts in this Collect from the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "O God [invocation], who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true [grounds for confidence], grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace as to become a dwelling pleasing to you [petition]. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever [conclusion]."

Praying Together

During the Collect and other prayers in the Mass, the priest extends his hands and arms outward in what is called the "orans" position, which means a position of prayer. This position was used by our Jewish ancestors and adapted for Christian prayer. With a historical note from the early Christian writer Tertullian, Belmonte observes that Christians adjusted how the hands are held "so as to resemble those of the Lord on the cross" (p. 65). During the Mass, the priest uses this gesture to indicate that we are all praying together; he is collecting all our prayers and offering them up to the Father.

At the end of this prayer, the people respond by saying, "Amen." As Fr. Guy Oury teaches us, this Hebrew word means "so be it, without question." He continues, "The Amen is the people's stamp of approval on what has just been said in their name. It is a Yes to the priest as having spoken the prayer" (The Mass, p. 57). The meaning and function of this simple response invite the congregation to respond boldly with a confident "Amen" in affirmation of this prayer in their name.

Preparing for Prayer

How should we pray during the Collect? Does the Collect seem to happen so quickly that you miss the words? That brief moment of silence before the prayer is an important one when each person can offer personal intentions to be joined with what the priest is about to pray. Here is a great moment to share interiorly any specific prayers you would like to offer along with the spoken prayers of the Mass. It is also an opportunity to prepare ourselves to listen attentively to the words of the Collect as an overview or summary of the main emphases of the prayers for that particular Mass. Perhaps we could see it as an invitation for how Jesus might teach us in the Mass. We might benefit greatly from reading over the words of the Collect before the Mass. If you have never done it, I would invite you to read through the words a couple of times and ask the Lord to prepare your mind and heart for what is to come. This mentality also prepares us to listen to the Liturgy of the Word, God's word spoken to His people.

For Reflection

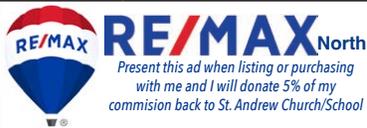

1. As Father Luke suggests, take time before Mass, either at home or in church, to pray with the Collect prayer for that liturgy. You can find Collects in Missals, missalettes, or online.
2. Reflect on Psalm 33, which tells us that God "surveys all who dwell on earth" (v. 14). Consider God receiving all the prayers we lift up during the moment of silence that belongs to the Collect. The Psalm further claims, "The One who fashioned together their hearts / is the One who knows all their works" (Ps. 33:15). Allow the Collect to "fashion" and shape your heart by listening attentively to the words the presider proclaims.
