MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The Lord is near! On this Fourth Sunday of Advent, Christmas is only a couple of days away. The feast of the Savior's birth is very near. On this day so close to Christmas, I want to take this opportunity to remind you that the Lord is always near to you.

I especially want to remind you of that because sometimes, even while many around us are joyfully celebrating Christmas with family and loved ones, there are those who feel alone and lost. There are those who are grieving, those who are far away from home, those who are confined to hospitals or care facilities, those who are worried and troubled by difficult circumstances in their life, and those who are estranged or rejected by family and friends.

My message to all on this Fourth Sunday of Advent is...the Lord is near! That's right – He is very near to you. You may not see Him, you may not hear His voice, but He is near to you nevertheless. He is close to you. He calls for you. He looks upon you with tenderness and compassion. He never rejects anyone. He sees your wounds and brokenness and wants to heal you and make you whole, if only you will let Him. The Lord is near! Very near, indeed.

Christmas is celebrated this week on Wednesday, Dec. 25. Please see the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Mass schedule in today's bulletin.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you a most blessed and happy Christmas.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

We wish you a Blessed and Merry Christmas!

Parish Office Holiday Hours:

The office will be closed Tuesday, Dec. 24, and Wednesday, Dec. 25, as well as Wednesday, Jan. 1. During Christmas/New Year's weeks, if you plan to visit a staff member, please call first.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

This Sunday, light all the candles on your Advent wreath and pray that the light of Christ will enter your heart so that you may share the warmth of God's love with those you meet.

DECORATING ELVES NEEDED!

It's almost time to transform our beautiful Church in celebration of the birth of our Lord. We need volunteers to assist with decorating. The wreaths, trees, and manger will be set up on Sunday, Dec. 22, at 1:00 p.m., and we will finish decorating with poinsettias and figurines on Monday, Dec. 23, at 4:00 p.m. Some heavy lifting and ladder climbing is needed on Sunday. This is a great opportunity for service hours for students. If you have any questions, please contact Jayne Frilling at jbfrilling@hotmail.com.

ST. ANDREW KNIGHTS will be outside the church entrance on Sunday, Dec. 22, with extra wreaths left from the sale. Any cash donation will be accepted.

5TH SUNDAY THIS MONTH

Your Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) helps neighbors in need with rent, utility, and other bills, all of which are UP. You could bring your taxes DOWN with a deductible contribution on this month's 5th Sunday on December 29.

Use the GOLD ENVELOPE in your packet (or any envelope labeled SVdP) and place it in the collection basket. Make checks payable to St. Andrew Church, with SVdP in the memo line. We carefully assess each request for help in order to use your donations wisely. Bless you for your generosity and prayers.

YOUR GIFT, YOUR LEGACY, OUR FUTURE IN CHRIST.

As we approach the close of 2024, we are reminded of Christ's call to generosity, echoed in Scripture: "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7). In this season of reflection, let us consider how our giving can serve the lasting mission of St. Andrew Parish, today and for generations to come. Contributions can be made using the Diocese of Columbus' Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund link where you can direct your contribution to St. Andrew School tuition assistance. Any Ohio state taxpayer can participate. You can also use this contribution as a federal tax deduction. The tax savings can be substantial. ### 2025 WINTER STUDY: THE BIBLE AND THE SACRAMENTS

TUESDAYS, JANUARY 14 – MARCH 25
7:15-8:30 P.M.
NUGENT PARISH HALL

What are the sacraments? Why do we do what we do in the confessional or at Mass? What's the point of baptizing a baby?

While Catholics know the sacraments are important, many never fully grasp how life-changing these "masterworks of God" really are. The Bible and the Sacraments unveils the mystery of the sacraments and their foundation in Sacred Scripture.

The Bible and the Sacraments is unlike any other study on the sacraments. Certainly, it looks at the basic teaching of the Church as to their meaning and origin. But it goes further. It investigates the deeper mystery of the sacraments as illuminated by Sacred Scripture.

The videos and participant guide are optional to purchase through the St. Paul Center website. If interested in learning more or purchasing, visit tinyurl.com/winter-study-2025 or use the QR code.

For additional information, contact Kathy Miller at Kathy.Miller725@gmail.com.

Is there a fee to join Tuesday Bible Study? Typically, Tuesday Bible Study is free to attend. Depending on the study, there may be an optional study guide you may want to purchase, but you do not pay to attend. Bring a friend!

Do I have to be Catholic to attend Tuesday Bible Study? No, you do not need to be Catholic but remember that we are presenting a Catholic Bible Study. You are 100% welcome to attend! Bring a friend!

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 51: The Institution Narrative ✠

What is the Institution Narrative? Simply put, the Institution Narrative is the words of Jesus at the Last Supper which we hear in the Mass. These are the words of the Mass that describe what Jesus did and what he said, including the words of Consecration which gave us his Body and Blood for the Holy Eucharist. When we hear the word “Institution” in this context, we are talking about the Institution of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

One Narrative from Multiple Texts

Fr. Guy Oury teaches, “The Account of the Institution is reported two different ways in the Gospel narrative. According to the Pauline tradition, followed by Saint Luke, the Lord after each consecration commanded his disciples to do what he had done, in memory of him: ‘Do this in memory of me’ (Lk 22:19). ‘Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me’ (1 Cor 11:25). Saint Matthew prefaces each consecration with an invitation to partake of the bread and wine: ‘Take and eat’... ‘Drink from it, all of you’ (Mt 26:26ff).” Fr. Oury continues, “St. Paul and St. Luke speak of the ‘cup of the new covenant in my blood.' St. Matthew's rendition is more direct and abrupt: 'This is my blood of the [new] covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins'... As reported in St. Matthew, the words of institution contain what amounts to a complete doctrine of the Eucharistic celebration. They say in effect that the death of Jesus has the character of an expiatory sacrifice for the sin of the world. Beyond that, they say that the Eucharist gives us the true Body and the true Blood of the crucified Christ as our food, and by the very fact of sacramental eating of the victim it also gives us participation in Christ's own sacrifice—this by will of the Lord expressed in person..." Interestingly, "There is not a single Liturgy that adhered strictly to one of the four scriptural formulas to the exclusion of the three others. Every liturgical account of the Institution was made of borrowings from more than one text" (The Mass, pp. 91-92).

A Fuller Picture of the Last Supper

At the Last Supper, Jesus and his disciples ate a ritual meal. This meal had an order of events and a progression that would have been familiar to the disciples. What we recognize now in the Mass reflects parts of the meal that Jesus changed significantly. Those changes we now see at the heart of the Mass, as the priest stands in the person of Christ. These words and actions at the heart of the Mass are the true words and actions of Jesus, the words and actions by which Jesus changes the bread and wine into the Eucharist, his true Body and Blood.

To summarize from above, if we take the four Gospels together (or, in this case, Gospels plus the writings of St. Paul), we get a fuller picture of Jesus and his life, words, and ministry.

The early Church knew we shouldn't leave anything out and knew the best way to give the "whole picture" was to use all the inspired Gospels and books of the Bible. We certainly benefit from the faith and wisdom of those who have gone before us! We have in the Bible four slightly different accounts of the words and actions of the Last Supper. As we said earlier when reflecting on the Gospels, we have four different Gospels because each writer had a particular audience he was writing for. Some things would have been widely known in certain audiences and so didn't need to be written down. For example, St. Matthew didn't need to talk about Jewish meals, sacrifices, and practices because he was writing to a Jewish audience who would have known all that. On the other hand, St. Luke and St. Paul do talk about the customs more, because they were primarily writing to non-Jewish people.

When it comes to the Eucharist, what is essential and what is found in each account is that Jesus, by his word, changes the bread and wine into his Body and Blood, gives Communion to the disciples, and asks them to continue this celebration. That is exactly what we do in every Mass!

For Reflection:

1. Before participating in Mass, spend time with each of the Institution Narratives in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and 1 Corinthians. Attune your mind to be attentive to the words you will hear again during the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
2. In prayer, reflect on and give thanks for the religious, cultural, and familial rituals that are part of your life. Consider how you can strengthen these rituals and direct them to the Lord.
