UPCOMING MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

On Saturday, May 18, there will be no 9 a.m. daily Mass. On this day, St. Andrew Parish is blessed to host the Diocese of Columbus Ordination Mass and we will be preparing the church throughout the day. Please keep the newly ordained clergy members in your prayers.

This change is for ONE WEEK ONLY. The 9:00 a.m. Mass will return on Saturday, May 25.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I wish to congratulate all of our young parishioners who received their First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 4! What a beautiful and joyful experience to receive the precious Body and Blood of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist for the first time! Our First Communion class has been preparing for this all year, and as the day approached, their excitement and anticipation grew. To receive Holy Communion is a great privilege, because Jesus gives His true Body and Blood to each one of us, filling us with His holiness and uniting us to His Mystical Body. I pray that our First Communicants and all of us who have tasted the goodness of the Lord in the Blessed Eucharist will always hunger for the Bread of Life!

This weekend is also the kickoff of The Appeal 2024: Supporting Catholic Ministries. The Appeal (formerly known as the "Bishop's Annual Appeal") is the main fundraising campaign that supports the many ministries and needs of the Diocese of Columbus. The Appeal especially supports vocations, Catholic education, and social concerns. I will be addressing the congregation at all Masses this weekend to encourage your participation by way of a generous pledge or gift to this year's Appeal.

The goal for this year's Appeal is $7.5 million. Our goal for St. Andrew Parish is $221,413.80. This is higher than last year's goal. The needs of the Diocese are increasing, and we are being called to do our part to support the important work of the diocesan church. I am confident that St. Andrew parishioners will once again rise to the occasion and we will exceed our goal through your generosity. It is very important that we do, because beginning this year, every parish is obligated to contribute their established goal to the Appeal. If we fall short, the difference will be added to the assessment, which the parish regularly pays to the diocese, and we will be paying this obligation from parish funds. On the other hand, if we exceed our goal, then everything raised over the above our goal will be refunded to St. Andrew Parish! I would much rather have the Diocese give St. Andrew money back than for St. Andrew to give the Diocese more money! In fact, because our parish reserves are somewhat depleted because of some necessary but expensive projects (namely, the replacement of the chiller and new HVAC equipment in the school ($600,000), and the much needed new LED lighting for the church ($200,000), I would really like to significantly exceed our Appeal goal this year, and replenish our parish reserves. So I am asking all of you to please be generous – extra generous! – to The Appeal 2024. Thank you so much!

I wish you all a blessed and beautiful month of May. May our blessed Mother Mary watch over and protect you!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 26: How to Engage with the Homily ✦

Why are Homilies so long anyway? To answer that question, we start by realizing that we don't always understand the Word of God perfectly when we first read it. Whenever we read a Bible passage, we should ask ourselves: "What is God saying here?" Sometimes it is pretty easy to listen to God; sometimes, it is not so easy. Sometimes reading the Bible can answer questions that we have; sometimes reading only seems to bring more questions. We humbly recognize that understanding everything about God and us is not always super-easy. So, in humility, we realize we need help. That is where the preachers of the Word come in—those who have been given a special grace to help God's people understand better his communication with us. With years of prayer and study, some preachers can become incredible resources, such as Cardinal Newman, who was known to preach on average about an hour and a half for every sermon!

Drawing Everyone Closer

In the homily, the bishop, priest, or deacon tries his best to help us hear what God is saying. We try to explain the Scripture and apply it to our lives in the local area. As we said last time, the whole point is to draw each heart in the congregation closer to Jesus. This is really important: the priest seeks out each heart. That is why sometimes the homily focuses on something you already know, do, or believe; that is why the homily might not always be perfectly on track with what you are thinking about. Because there are a lot of people in the pews with different backgrounds and experiences, preaching a homily that directly addresses everyone can be a little tricky. Have you noticed that sometimes the preacher says the same thing in a couple of ways? This is one way of helping different people to understand the same message.

Listening with Open Hearts

Make no mistake about it, though—the homily is not just the preacher trying to help people understand God’s message to us. One of the most important parts of the homily involves everyone sitting in the pews: all are invited to listen with an open heart. Each one is encouraged to follow the homily in his or her heart, taking in what is helpful and being on the lookout for the true needs of the heart. If we believe that God is working through the ordained clergy who are preaching, then there will always be something in the homily for us; we just have to listen for it.

Another important part of listening to the homily is an openness to being challenged. If we think we already know it all (or enough), our hearts won’t be ready to receive God’s message to us through the preacher. We have to be ready to admit that we don’t know everything and that we don’t always understand everything perfectly. Listening to the homily takes some humility. I recall one of the seminary professors at Mount St. Mary’s—Sister Joan—who had listened to decades of homilies day after day, including thousands by deacons in the seminary who were still learning their way. Even though she knew so much more than we did, even though at times it seemed we were trying her patience, she was always there in the front row, ready to listen attentively. What great humility! The preacher needs this same humility also, which is why we said above that he tries his best. Remember that when you hear something challenging, it is the preacher’s duty to proclaim the truth, and perhaps could be God calling you closer to his heart through the preacher’s very words.

This being said, we all know that the homily to the congregation is not always a spectacular touchdown pass. Sometimes we are distracted or tired. Sometimes we hope the preacher will speak on something in the readings that interests us, but he doesn’t get to it. Whatever the case, the Lord only asks us to give a good effort at true listening, knowing there will be something there that will help us. And when that wooden pew seat starts to get a little hard, just think of the people in years gone by who listened to homilies for hours on end and remind yourself: “Wow, it is almost time for the Creed and the Prayers of the Faithful!”

For Reflection:

1. Pray with the account of the Deacon Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8:26–40. As you conclude your prayer, give thanks for those ordained ministers who help us understand and respond to God’s Word in Scripture.
2. Help yourself engage with the homily at Mass by approaching this portion of the Liturgy as a treasure hunt or “game” of “hide and seek.” What message has the Lord Jesus hidden for you in this homily?
