*Then Jesus straightened up and said to her,
"Woman, where are they?
Has no one condemned you?"
She replied, "No one, sir."
Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you.
Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, the Fifth Sunday of Lent, marks the beginning of Passiontide. The focus of this period is on the events leading up to the betrayal, arrest, and crucifixion of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The statues and the crucifix in church are veiled in cloth during Passiontide. "Passion" means "suffering." It is derived from the Latin word pator, which means "to suffer." The words "patient" and "passive" are also related words. During this season of Passiontide, I would like to recommend that we try to appreciate ever more deeply how much Jesus suffered for our sake as He endured His passion and death in order to obtain for us the forgiveness of sins, to reconcile us to the Father, and to enable us to inherit eternal life.

There is no better way to enter into Christ's suffering than to pray and meditate upon the Stations of the Cross. When we pray the Stations, we accompany Jesus along the Way of the Cross. We follow His steps from station to station. We fall to the ground with Him, and rise up again. We help Him to carry His cross, and in turn, are helped by Him to carry our own. We are stripped of all pride and false pretenses as we share in His humiliation. We feel the pain of His wounds and our hearts are moved to pity and grief. In praying the Stations of the Cross, we share in the Passion of Christ, and so hope to share in His resurrection also.

Please keep in mind that you can pray and meditate on The Station of the Cross anytime. The best way to pray The Stations is to walk from station to station (whether in church or along the outdoor stations), pausing at each station along the way for a brief meditation. Someone showed me recently a Stations of the Cross Chaplet, a Rosary-like set of beads with the 14 stations on it.

The important thing is that, however we pray The Stations, we strive to accompany Jesus in His hour of suffering and death. In doing so, may we grow in patience.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

The Mass

"Do This in Remembrance of Me"

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 64: The Lamb of God

Continuing through the Communion Rite, we have prayed the Our Father and exchanged a holy and reverent Sign of Peace. What comes next? As The General Instruction of the Roman Missal explains, "The gesture of breaking bread done by Christ at the Last Supper, which in apostolic times gave the entire Eucharistic Action its name [Breaking of the Bread was a common name for Mass in the early Church], signifies that the many faithful are made one body (1 Cor 10:17) by receiving Communion from the one Bread of Life, which is Christ, who for the salvation of the world died and rose again. The fraction or breaking of bread is begun after the sign of peace and is carried out with proper reverence, and should not be unnecessarily prolonged or accorded exaggerated importance... The priest breaks the Bread and puts a piece of the host into the chalice to signify the unity of the Body and Blood of the Lord in the work of salvation, namely, of the Body of Jesus Christ, living and glorious" (GIRM, 83).

The Lamb of God in Scripture

You may be thinking, Hold on, Father! What about the Lamb of God? Well, as we will see, at this moment of the Mass a couple of actions will be overlapping. At this point in the Mass, we either sing or say the Agnus Dei: "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace." The Roman Missal instructs that the first phrases may be repeated if needed, but the final time always ends with "grant us peace." As John the Baptist heralded, Jesus is the Lamb of God—the one true sacrifice offered out of love for us for the forgiveness of sins. As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, "The slaughtered lamb is of extreme importance throughout Sacred Scripture. The prophecy of Jeremiah is that the suffering Servant of the Lord would be like a 'lamb led to the slaughter.' The Book of Revelation states that enthroned on the Heavenly Altar is the Lamb of God showing the marks of being slain for our offenses. For the Jewish Passover, the lamb was the prescribed animal of sacrifice. The sacrifice of Jesus is the new Passover. In fact, as the Gospel of John details, Jesus is the Lamb of the new Passover" (A Study of the Mass, p. 18).

The Meaning of the Lamb of God

In greater depth, Charles Belmonte states, "The figure of the 'Lamb of God' is full of meaning and is helpful to enkindle our devotion before Communion. The Lamb foretold by Isaiah and announced by St. John the Baptist should wipe out our sins through his obedience to God's will: 'Innocent, he never opened his mouth, like a lamb that is led to the slaughterhouse, like a sheep that is dumb before its shearers' (Isa 53:7)... [T]his lamb was also foreshadowed by the paschal lamb the Jews sacrificed on the eve of their departure from their slavery in Egypt. The expression of John the Baptist reminds us of the lamb of which the Jews celebrated the Passover every year, the pledge of the reconciliation of man with God. St. John the Evangelist, who was at the foot of the cross, observed that Jesus' legs were not broken as in the case of the two thieves. We find in this detail some similarity with the prescription of God for the Paschal lamb: 'You must not break any bone of it' (Ex 12:46) ... Finally, the Agnus Dei [Lamb of God] is also a nuptial hymn to celebrate the wedding of the Lamb with his bride, the Church, in peace and unity, as is described in the Book of Revelation. There, on the altar, the Lamb lies alive, but as if slain. Twenty-four elders are around the Lamb. They are clothed in white robes and crowned with gold. Thousands of angels hymn the sacrifice and triumph of the Lamb. Certainly, each Mass is only a prelude and a token of the future adoration of the Lamb in eternity" (Understanding the Mass, p. 180-81).

So, just like so many of the other Mass parts we have reviewed, the Lamb of God is filled with meaning and symbolism, all of which are pointing directly to Jesus Christ, truly present on the altar: his Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. Just before we are ready for Holy Communion, these words remind us of Who is present on the altar and that, in his great love, he offered himself in sacrifice to save us from our sins. Here is the One who fulfills the prophecies of old. Here is the One for whom hearts have been longing. Here is the One whose perfect sacrifice draws us together in love and opens a sharing in the beauty and perfection of heaven. What a great Savior! How blessed are we that he is truly present in our midst!

For Reflection:

1. Meditate on one or more of the lamb-related passages Fr. Luke features in this week's reflection: Ex 12; Isa 53; Jn 1:19-51; Rev 5. Give thanks to the Father for revealing the Lamb of God to us.
2. Pray with an image of the Lamb of God in art, such as Francisco de Zurbarán's Agnus Dei, the Van Eyck brothers' Ghent Altarpiece, or Josefa de Ayala's The Sacrificial Lamb. Allow this visual experience of prayer to help you perceive Christ's presence at Mass.
