Choral Prelude

Sung by the Choir at the 9:15 Mass

The Good Shepherd

James Chepponis

I am the Good Shepherd; I care for my flock;
for you I lay down my life, and I lead you home.

The Lord is my shepherd; I have everything I need.
Fresh and green are the meadows where he gives me repose.
Near quiet waters he leads me, to revive my soul.
He guides me in right paths; he is true to his word.

Even though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil;
for you are at my side with your rod and your staff to comfort me.

You have prepared a feast for me in the sight of my foes;
my head you have anointed with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
I shall dwell in the Lord's house forever.

Text: Psalm 23. Refrain based on John 10:14.
