MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I am writing these words on Thursday, May 8. The election of Pope Leo XIV (Robert Francis Prevost) has just been announced. He is the first American to be chosen to lead the Universal Church as the successor of St. Peter. As we rejoice and give thanks to Almighty God for giving us a good shepherd, let us also pray that God may bless him with His guidance and protection. Viva il Papa!

Last Saturday, we celebrated First Holy Communion here at St. Andrew. Before the Mass began, I was talking to some of the children in the First Communion class as they were getting settled into their seats. I asked, "Are you excited?" And they enthusiastically answered "YES!" These children were so eager and so excited to be receiving Holy Communion! I reflected upon this and realized that all of us should be excited and eager to receive Holy Communion every time we come to Mass. I made my First Communion 61 years ago (May 10, 1964), and I still am eager and excited to receive the Bread of Life!

Last weekend, we began the campaign for "The Appeal 2025." I have made my pledge to The Appeal already, and I hope all of you will do the same. Watch this bulletin for periodic progress reports as we strive to reach our goal of $227,602. I am counting on all parishioners to support this worthwhile effort.

Finally, I want to thank Mark Pardi along with Greg Holowchak, Tom Dailey, and Eric Messerly, for planning and building a new deck on the back of the rectory. The old deck had fallen into disrepair because of water damage, and was unattractive because of peeling paint. Now there is a beautiful, new, structurally reinforced and maintenance-free deck, with, railings, handrails, and safe steps. This deck is rock solid and beautifies the rectory and backyard. I offer my profound thanks to Mark and his "crew," and wish God's blessings upon them.

And may God bless and protect all of you as we continue to celebrate the Easter season.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

Loving God, we thank You for the love of the mothers You have given us, whose love is so precious that it can never be measured, whose patience seems to have no end. We pray for those mothers who fear they will run out of love or time, or patience. We ask You to bless them with Your own special love. AMEN.

Please consider volunteering for this important ministry that serves those who cannot attend Mass in person. Ministers must be 18 or older to serve. For more information, contact Dcn. The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me”

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 68: Holy Communion

As we continue through the Communion Rite, the long-anticipated moment has arrived. Finally, it is time for Holy Communion! This is the moment we have been preparing for throughout the whole Mass. Whenever I think about the joy of Holy Communion, I remember very vividly the thrill of my First Communion. I think of the song we all learned and the wonderful party afterward. But I especially remember the moment of Communion. Although I was small at the time, in second grade, I remember feeling a special closeness to God that I never had felt before. I don't know if I grasped what Holy Communion meant on an intellectual or even theological level, but I certainly felt a true spiritual union with our Lord.

As Fr. Joseph McGloin teaches, “The word ‘communion’ is almost self-explanatory. Literally, it means ‘union with.’ It suggests a sharing, a mutual participation. Holy Communion, is, then, an intimate sharing in the life of Christ” (How to Get More Out of the Mass, p. 128). That is exactly what takes place in Holy Communion. We receive the Precious Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ into our bodies, and he unites us with himself. Unlike regular food which becomes part of our bodies, the Eucharist unites our bodies to the Lord. Fr. McGloin continues, “While the other sacraments bring us the grace of Christ, this one brings us the grace of Christ himself along with himself. Truly, a person with any faith in Christ would be foolish to neglect this great gift” (How to Get More Out of the Mass, p. 133).

Participating in Christ's Perfect Sacrifice

Did you notice he said sacrifice? Hopefully, this word reminds us of one of the names for the Mass—the Holy Sacrifice. As we have journeyed through the Mass, we have noted that the Mass is a true sharing in the Last Supper and in the Cross of Jesus. In the Mass, we are invited to participate in the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus. Fr. Guy Oury tells us how sacrifice and Holy Communion fit together in the Mass. He says, “The Mass is a sacrifice but also a repast, or rather, a sacrificial repast. It would not have meaning, at least not the meaning given it by the Lord, were it not also Communion.” He goes on to say, “The meal symbolizes the union between the God of the covenant and the people of God.”

This becomes clearer if we look at meals and feasts in Jewish history. According to Fr. Oury, “In the [Traditional Jewish] meal God is present as a tablemate, invisible to be sure but still present. He lives with human beings, shares their common interests, and welcomes them as intimates. People are the invited of God... At the time of Christ, the image of a feast was one of the most common to portray the kingdom that was to come. The Lord used it repeatedly in the parables. It stood for the kingdom of heaven both in the terrestrial form that is the Church and in the ultimate and definitive form that is paradise. The Eucharist itself was instituted in the context of a sacred meal, that of Passover” (The Mass, pp. 105–6).

The Greatest Celebration of All Time

See how Holy Communion is so much more than just a meal? True, it is a Sacred Meal, Holy Thursday, the Last Supper, where we are guests of the Lord, who gives of his very self for our nourishment. But, this meal is also the sacrifice of the Cross, where our sins are overcome and conquered once and for all. The meal is also an anticipation of the heavenly banquet, where we will celebrate with the Lord and the Communion of Saints forever. Finally, this special meal is also a means of unity among the faithful—the Body of Christ, the Church. With all this meaning, the Eucharist is the greatest celebration of all time. Not only are we present at this wonderful celebration, but many of us are also invited to receive the Lord in the Eucharist. In the weeks ahead, we will look more closely at receiving Communion properly, who can receive Communion, different forms of Holy Communion, and what to do when we aren't able to receive Our Lord.

For Reflection:

1. Reflect on God's promise through Isaiah to provide a feast “for all peoples” (see Isa 25:1–9). Thank Christ for his sacrifice present in the Mass, and make Isaiah's prayer your own: “let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!” (Isa 25:9).
2. Deepen your awareness of the Old Testament ritual feasts that prepared the way for Christ as described in Leviticus (see Lev 23). Discuss with your family or community how to strengthen the centrality of the Mass in your weekly or daily life.
