MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, which honors the mystery of the one God consisting of three divine persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Trinity is truly a mystery. It is simply beyond the ability of our small minds to comprehend the awesome reality of the all-powerful, all-knowing, and infinite God! Neither can we understand how there can be a trinity of persons in the one God. Yet we know that the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit are God because they have been revealed to us. We should not try to "solve" this mystery of the Trinity, but rather praise and bless almighty God by beginning every undertaking, every prayer, every work, and deed with, "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Today is also Father's Day, and I want to wish all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers and father figures of all kinds a happy day in your honor! I pray that you may truly be blessed and strengthened by God to be the heroes your children and grandchildren already believe you to be!

On this Trinity Sunday, may God bless you all "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.

Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

COUNCIL MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

SAMANTHA URITUS

Parish Council Secretary 2023-2025

I have been blessed to call St. Andrew "home" since the first grade. I'm a school alumna and a lifetime parishioner. Inspired by my father and late father-in-law, who were both very active in the parish, I felt called to become a Parish Council member three years ago.

Through my service on the Parish Council, I have gained a deeper understanding of the importance of serving and listening to those in our parish community. This year, I've worked closely with Parish Council President David Nagle to support and promote Donut Sundays. Our efforts reached beyond finding sponsors for this monthly event. In addition, we coordinated the introduction of and encouraged group members to engage with other parish ministries. For example, on a Donut Sunday, you may see sponsoring group members (students, school parents, and parishioners) take on roles in other ministries, like ushers and greeters. Our parish isn't just a place where we go to worship. It's the people who show up with love and gratitude to make our church a better place. I hope that reading this will inspire others to become Parish Council members or volunteer in some other capacity.

If you have a question about the parish, we encourage you to speak with a Parish Council member. Are you interested in becoming a Parish Council member? We have spots opening up this summer. For more details, email parishcouncil@standrewparish.cc.

LAST CHANCE TO NOMINATE OR APPLY!

Please consider service in this important role in our parish! The purpose of the 12-member council is to advise and assist the pastor in matters of importance to the parish. We will accept nominations/applications through Monday, June 16. Elections will be held at the end of June. If interested, complete and return the Nomination/Candidate Application found on the parish website at tinyurl.com/CouncilApplication-2025 or use the QR. For more information, contact Dave Nagle at parishcouncil@standrewparish.cc.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

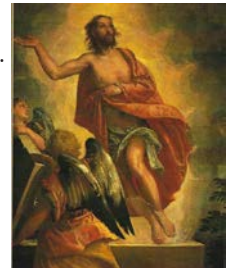

»MILLIONS OF MONICAS PRAYER MINISTRY:

All women of the parish are welcome to join us in prayer for our children, family members, and friends who struggle with the Catholic faith or have left the faith entirely. We meet the second Monday of each month. Our next prayer meeting is scheduled for Monday, July 14, from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in the church. For information about this prayer ministry, contact Amy Lilly at amyliss14@gmail.com.

»SAINT MONICA CLUB is a group of men and women who meet on the last Monday of every month to pray for loved ones who have left the Catholic faith. The next meeting is Monday, June 30, from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in the parish hall. For more information, contact Amy Lilly at amyliss14@gmail.com.

»MEN'S WEEKLY BIBLE STUDY:

Join us each Friday from 7:00-8:00 a.m. in the Parish Office Lower Level Meeting Room to discuss the letters of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians, Timothy and Titus. Learn about Paul's encouragement and admonishments to his trusted assistants and the young congregations he founded. In this 20-week Bible study series for men of all ages, you'll find inspirational commentary from popular theologians Scott Hahn and Curtis Mitch, as well as insights from the Church Fathers, geographical maps, and pertinent study questions. No homework or reading is required between meetings. Coffee is provided. For more information, contact Greg Holowchak at 614-949-1491 or greg.holowchak@hotmail.com.

JOIN US IN THE GARDEN on Monday mornings from 9:30-11:00 a.m.

Garden Club members maintain the perennial garden by the grotto, the garden in front of the parish office and the red cannas around the McCoy Road parking lot. Bring your garden gloves and hand tools and enjoy fellowship, fresh air, and a little gardening. We meet near the flower garden with the swing. You can come as often as your schedule allows and as weather permits. For more information, contact Karen Bruns at 614-216-4694 or kbruns145@gmail.com, or Rosemary Scholl at 614-270-2020 or rischoll47@gmail.com.

The Mass

"Do This in Remembrance of Me"

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 73: Communion under Both Forms

Last time, we addressed making a sign of reverence before receiving Communion in the sacred host or in the chalice. This time, we consider receiving from the chalice in particular. You may have noticed differences in what churches do for Communion. Someone who travels might encounter parishes where the Precious Blood is offered and others where everyone receives the sacred host without receiving from the chalice.

Let's look at The General Instruction of the Roman Missal: "It is most desirable that the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord's Body from hosts consecrated at the same Mass and that, in the cases where this is foreseen, they partake of the chalice, so that even by means of the signs Communion may stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated" (GIRM, 85). The point here is to emphasize that receiving Communion itself should help unite us to the Holy Sacrifice—through hosts consecrated at the Mass and, (then notice) "where this is foreseen," from the chalice.

When Do We Receive Communion from the Chalice?

So, when are members of the faithful able to receive from the chalice? The GIRM reminds us that the bishops have the authority to give guidelines for the manner of receiving Communion in their dioceses. This is because the bishops are the caretakers of the liturgy within their dioceses. The GIRM does provide some guidelines for the bishops to follow: "Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it takes place under both kinds. For in this form the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is more clearly evident and clearer expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord, as also the connection between the Eucharistic banquet and the eschatological banquet in the Kingdom of the Father” (GIRM, 281). What is this paragraph saying with “both kinds” (or sometimes we see the description “both forms”)? The reference here is to Communion being offered under the form of the sacred host and in the chalice. That is, that Communion would be offered in forms that involve both eating and drinking.

Why Don't We Always Receive from the Chalice?

So, why don't we always have Communion under both forms? Believe it or not, one simple reason is practicality. Having numerous people drink from the chalice requires either a very large chalice or a number of chalices. Depending on the size of the parish, this could be no problem; but in parishes that are very large, this can become a challenge. In one parish where I visited, there were 10 to 20 extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion at every Mass. As you might imagine, getting all these folks prepared and to their stations was quite a process. Another practical reason for some bishops and pastors is concern for reverence and the worry over potentially spilling the Precious Blood. Additionally, with heightened sensitivity to health, for some, the sharing of the chalice is personally challenging.

Along with some of these practical reasons, there is also a faith consideration based on our belief that Jesus is really and completely present under either form of Communion. The GIRM states, “Sacred pastors should take care to ensure that the faithful... are made aware by the most suitable means possible of the Catholic teaching on the form of Holy Communion as laid down by the Ecumenical Council of Trent. Above all, they should instruct the Christian faithful that the Catholic faith teaches that Christ, whole and entire, and the true Sacrament, is received even under only one species, and hence that as regards the resulting fruits, those who receive under only one species are not deprived of any grace that is necessary for salvation” (GIRM, 282). This text reminds pastors to make sure people know that receiving the host is receiving the whole Christ; receiving from the chalice is receiving the whole Christ; receiving both forms is receiving the whole Christ. There have been times in history where this teaching was not necessarily clear; for some, receiving Communion under one form can assist with that clarity.

Who Decides When We Receive from the Chalice?

Ultimately, the decision is up to the bishop, who can choose to extend the decision to the individual pastor. Bishops are charged to do whatever they think will be most helpful to people spiritually, while at the same time guarding the true faith and reverence for Jesus present in the Holy Sacrament. So, when you travel and notice that some parishes have Communion under both forms and some do not, know that the bishop and pastor have decided, according to the instruction of the GIRM, to do what they think is best for their parishes and people at the present time. As always, if we don't understand the wisdom of our leaders in these decisions, we are invited to pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance and wisdom, and continue to pray for true unity in Christ!

For Reflection:

1. Pray with 1 Corinthians 10:14-22, where St. Paul describes our unity in the “one loaf” of the Eucharist. Ask for a greater appreciation of Communion as union with Christ and one another.
2. Make a commitment to pray daily for your local bishop and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all his decisions.
