MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Have you given thanks to God lately for the gifts of your senses? God made the world and everything in it, and He gave you your five senses so you can experience the beauty of creation fully and deeply. God gives us eyes to see, ears to hear. He gives us the ability to smell, to taste, and to touch! These summer days are a feast for the senses! We can gaze on clear blue skies, white clouds, and green fields. We can hear birds singing and children playing. We can smell the blooming flowers and see their colorful blossoms. We can taste the tomatoes, sweet corn, and melons from the garden. We can feel the warmth of the sun and the coolness of the breeze. How many and varied are the sights, sounds, flavors, aromas, and sensations of summer?

Do you realize that the celebration of Mass in church is also a feast for the senses? It is intended to involve all of the senses in giving worship, praise, and glory to the One God. Our eyes are drawn to the altar. There are statues and images in the church that we see with our eyes and are moved to prayer. We see candles burning to remind us that Christ is our light. And this time of year, we see the church bathed in many-colored light by the morning sun streaming through the stained glass windows. We hear God's Word proclaimed to us, and voices singing hymns of praise accompanied by the sound of the organ. We may smell incense, feel the touch of holy water, or the grasp of our neighbor's hand at the exchange of the sign of peace. We taste the goodness of the Lord as we eat the Sacrament of His Body and Blood, which we have already looked upon with Adoration at the elevation, as we were called to do by the ringing of the altar bells.

This coming Friday and Saturday will be yet another wonderful opportunity to delight your senses. I am referring to The Festival at St. Andrew! You will see your friends and neighbors, bright, colorful lights, the carousel horses and Ferris wheel going round and round. You will hear people laughing, bands playing, songs being sung, and people conversing and just having fun. You will smell burgers and brats grilling; you will taste them also, along with some festival fries, cake, pie, ice cream, and your favorite beverage. You will feel relaxed and comfortable sitting under a tent, or you may feel the excitement of the crowd around you. I will pray that we don't see lightning, hear thunder, or feel wind or rain! And I will also pray that all of you stay safe and have a very good time at the St. Andrew festival this summer.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

CALLING ALL KNITTERS AND CROCHETERS

All are welcome to our monthly knit and crochet meeting on Monday, Aug. 18, from 6:30-8:00 p.m., in Nugent Parish Hall. We have needle workers of all levels. Please bring your own knitting needles (size 7 or 8) and/or crochet hooks (size G or H). Each monthly meeting includes fun and laughter while we make items for those in need. ## EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY TRAINING FOR THE HOMEBOUND is scheduled for Saturday, August 23, from 10:00-11:00 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room (the room off the parlor). We need homebound ministers to distribute Holy Communion to those in nursing facilities or homes nearby, and celebrate God's love for all of us. The time commitment is 2-3 hours each month. While the primary purpose of homebound visits is sacramental, we also provide our homebound parishioners with a sense of community as well as assurance that they remain an important part of the parish.

Please consider volunteering for this vital ministry that serves more than 100 faithful individuals who are unable to attend Mass in person. Ministers must be 18 years or older to serve. For more information, contact Deacon Dowler at ddowler@columbuscatholic.org. ### TUESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY BEGINS TUESDAY, SEPT. 9 7:15 PM // NUGENT PARISH HALL

The Gospel of Luke takes you on a journey that begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and culminates in Jesus' Ascension into heaven. On the road to Emmaus, a story unique to the Gospel of Luke, Jesus gave us the greatest Bible study of all time, laying out His fulfillment of the Old Testament. In Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled, you will witness key moments in salvation history including the Annunciation, the Nativity, His public ministry, and Jesus' suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection. There are parables found only in Luke, including the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the rich man and Lazarus, which will show you the mercy and compassion that Jesus has for each one of His children.

Each evening session includes a 30-minute video with expert commentary from Jeff Cavins and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow followed by small group discussion. To purchase the optional workbook and get online access, visit tinyurl.com/LukeJourney-2025 or use the QR.

This is an eight-week study that continues through Tuesday, Oct. 28. For more information, contact Patricia Prior at patriciaprior11@gmail.com.

Please consider those less fortunate when you are shopping!

RESPECT LIFE

"Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique."

If nothing is done to stem the alarming exodus of our Christians from the Holy Land, then within 50 years, Christianity will disappear from the very land where Christ founded the Church.

This exodus from the Holy Land can be attributed in large part to a lack of formal education. Without this access, Christians encounter difficulties in securing meaningful employment, which ultimately leads to a lifetime of financial struggles. Solving this gap in education begins with ensuring younger generations have access to education.

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✙ Part 77: Concluding Rites and Blessing ✙

Strengthened by the true presence of Jesus and following the Prayer after Communion, we are truly ready to go out into the world. What happens before moving from our pews to our cars? That would be the Concluding Rites. As The General Instruction of the Roman Missal lays out, "To the Concluding Rites belong the following: (a) brief announcements, should they be necessary; (b) the Priest's Greeting and Blessing, which on certain days and occasions is expanded and expressed by the Prayer over the People or another more solemn formula; (c) the Dismissal of the people by the Deacon or the Priest, so that each may go back to doing good works, praising and blessing God; (d) the kissing of the altar by the Priest and the Deacon, followed by a profound bow to the altar by the Priest, the Deacon, and the other ministers" (GIRM, 90).

Many parts of the Concluding Rites mirror what we did at the very beginning of Mass, including the priest's greeting and response from the people: "The Lord be with you." "And with your spirit." What happens next, though, is special to the end of Mass. It also happens to be one of my favorite things about being a priest: blessing the people.

What Is a Blessing?

Our Catechism of the Catholic Church glossary includes a definition for Blessing: "A blessing or benediction is a prayer invoking God's power and care upon some person, place, thing, or undertaking. The prayer of benediction acknowledges God as the source of all blessing" (CCC, p. 868). Furthermore, "Among sacramentals, blessings (of persons, meals, objects, and places) come first. Every blessing praises God and prays for his gifts. In Christ, Christians are blessed by God the Father 'with every spiritual blessing.' This is why the Church imparts blessings by invoking the name of Jesus, usually while making the holy sign of the cross of Christ" (CCC, 1671).

I love being able to ask God's strength, help, and protection upon people through blessings. As the Catechism indicates, the act of blessing turns toward God and acknowledges all the good that comes from him and then asks a share of that good for a particular purpose. This is drawn out more clearly through the Solemn Blessings and prayers over the people that can be used at the end of Mass. When one of these is used, the Deacon or Priest will give an instruction after the priest's greeting and people's response: "Bow down for the blessing." This instruction directs us to adopt a posture that prepares us for receiving the blessing from God through the ministry of his priest.

Examples of Blessings Used at Mass

Let's look at some different blessing options for this part of the Mass. The Solemn Blessing for Ordinary Time II, echoing the words of Philippians 4:7, reads:

*P: May the peace of God,
which surpasses all understanding,
keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge of God,
and of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. R: Amen.*
*P: And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever. R: Amen.*

What a great blessing! Here we are invoking the peace of God, which is beyond our own abilities, upon the people to help them keep in mind the goodness of God. Sometimes the blessing will be in the format of four phrases with the people responding Amen in between, like in this Solemn Blessing for the Beginning of the Year:

*P: May God, the source and origin of all blessing,
grant you grace,
pour out his blessing in abundance,
and keep you safe from harm throughout the year. R: Amen.*
*P: May he give you integrity in the faith,
endurance in hope,
and perseverance in charity
with holy patience to the end. R: Amen.*
*P: May he order your days and your deeds in his peace,
grant your prayers in this and in every place,
and lead you happily to eternal life. R: Amen.*
*P: And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever. R: Amen.*

As mentioned above, the priest may also use one of the Prayers over the People, such as #17:

P: Bestow increase of heavenly grace on your faithful, O Lord; may they praise you with their lips, with their souls, with their lives; and since it is by your gift that we exist, may our whole lives be yours. Through Christ our Lord. R: Amen.
P: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever. R: Amen.

Multiple Blessing Options for Mass

These are just three of the twenty Solemn Blessings and 28 Prayers over the People that are in the Roman Missal. That's a lot of blessing possibilities! As the Roman Missal indicates, these blessings can be used at the discretion of the priest. There are some that are specifically laid out for Major Solemnities like Christmas, Epiphany, and Easter. But there are also many which can be used at any Mass.

Next time you are at Mass and the priest uses one of these special blessings, try to notice the ways the text acknowledges the goodness of God, and then be ready to receive a special strengthening help from our loving Lord!

For Reflection:

1. As Fr. Luke suggests, next time you are at Mass, listen attentively to the words of the Solemn Blessing or Prayer over the People. Unite your heart with the intentions the prayer expresses. If the celebrant simply blesses the people in the Name of the Trinity, consciously receive the strengthening which this blessing imparts.
2. Reflect on the gift and tradition of blessings in our Faith by praying with Genesis 49, in which Jacob blesses his 12 sons. Pray in particular with Gen 49:25-26, which recalls the many ways God blesses us. Next time you participate in Mass, await the Concluding Rites with anticipation of receiving this blessing from God through the ordained minister.
