MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Recent events, including the Annunciation Church shooting in Minneapolis where two school children were killed, and the assassination of Charlie Kirk at Utah Valley University, have left me with one big question: Is there no respect for life in our American society any more? Have we become so callous and indifferent to the intrinsic value of human life that we have come to accept the arbitrary and ruthless acts of snuffing out human lives? I suppose that the long history of the acceptance of abortion in our nation has cheapened the value of human life in our society. The unborn are so expendable that the simple fact that they are unwanted is regarded as sufficient justification for their elimination.

Last Saturday, I participated in prayers of mourning for the victims of abortion in observance of the National Day of Mourning for Aborted Children. This took place at the memorial marker near the grotto outside St. Andrew Church. This was a very meaningful and important observance, and it helps us to remember that millions of human lives have been lost and should not be forgotten, not just to abortion but other forms of violent human malice.

At this time in our history, when we question whether there is any respect for life in our society, we must not forget any of those whose lives have been ended by human malice, indifference, or violence. Let us all pray and work to make respect for all human life, from conception to natural death, an enduring reality in these United States.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

PREPARE FOR RETIREMENT LIVING, FINANCIALLY AND FAITHFULLY

How will Catholic teaching shape your retirement planning? As you prepare for this life transition, consider how Church wisdom about stewardship, community, and service can guide your decisions. Catholic retirement planning goes beyond financial security—it involves discerning how God is calling you to use your accumulated resources, experiences, and time.

Your Catholic Retirement™ offers resources covering Catholic pro-life directives, sacramental considerations, and proper practices for Catholic funerals and burials. It also helps Catholics explore how their financial resources can support their parish's endowment fund. Whether through a cash donation, life insurance policy, or retirement distribution, your contribution—carefully managed by The Catholic Foundation—will strengthen our St. Andrew community far beyond the weekly offertory.

Contact Christy Steffy at 614-443-8893, ext. 1100, or CSteffy@Catholic-Foundation.org to learn more about the resources available to help you plan Your Catholic Retirement.

RESPECT LIFE

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM MONTH SIX

"I'm sitting up straight now!"

Your spiritually adopted baby is developing quite beautifully now. Her weight is approaching 2 pounds. She sits up straight to accommodate her internal organs that have moved into the appropriate place in her little body. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed. Don't forget to pray for your baby. Abortion is legal through all nine months and her mom might still feel pressure to abort.

"Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

~Bishop Fulton Sheen

"Thus says the Lord, your redeemer, who formed you from the womb: I am the Lord, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, I spread out the earth by myself."

~Isaiah 44:24
