MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Late last week, in the aftermath of the senseless shooting at Annunciation Catholic Church and school in Minneapolis, I received a letter from Congregation Beth Tikvah expressing solidarity during this time of sorrow and distress. I read this letter to those attending the 9:15 a.m. Mass this past Sunday, and I have included it in today's bulletin for all to read. The letter is addressed to the entire congregation of St. Andrew and I believe you will find the letter a source of encouragement and an expression of hope and peace. I am grateful to Rabbi Kellner and Rabbi Martin and the Congregation Beth Tikvah for their expression of support, solidarity, and peaceful blessings.

I want to assure you that steps have already been taken to increase security for the protection of our St. Andrew School students and staff when they are participating in Mass together with parishioners and guests here in the parish church. It would not be prudent for me to go into detail about these measures, but those coming to attend these Masses may notice the signs of increased security, and hopefully, will not be alarmed but rather reassured by them. If any slight inconvenience is encountered, I hope that this will be accepted cheerfully for the sake of safety.

On a happier note, this coming Monday, Sept. 8, is the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary's birthday is one of only three birthdays celebrated in the church's liturgical calendar. The other two are John the Baptist (June 24), and Jesus (December 25, Christmas). Those last two births are recorded in the Bible in the Gospels of Luke and Matthew, Mary's birth is not recorded in the Bible, but is known from an ancient tradition dating back to the 2nd century, which names Mary's parents, Joachim and Anne. September 8 became the Feast of the Nativity of Mary because it was linked to the construction of the Basilica of St. Anne in Jerusalem, which was built on the site of Anne and Joachim's house. This may have been the birthplace of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

»TUESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY begins Tuesday, Sept. 9, at 7:15 p.m. in Nugent Parish Hall. The Gospel of Luke takes you on a journey that begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and culminates in Jesus' Ascension into heaven. On the road to Emmaus, a story unique to the Gospel of Luke, Jesus gave us the greatest Bible study of all time, laying out his fulfillment of the Old Testament. In Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled, you will witness key moments in salvation history including the Annunciation, the Nativity, His public ministry, and Jesus' suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection.

Each evening session includes a 30-minute video with expert commentary from Jeff Cavins and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow followed by small group discussion. To purchase the optional workbook and get online access, visit tinyurl.com/LukeJourney-2025 or use the QR.

This is an eight-week study that continues through Tuesday, Oct. 28. For more information, contact Patricia Prior at patriciaprior11@gmail.com.

Members of our conference will be at the church doors after Masses the weekend of September 13 & 14 to accept donations and answer questions about the walk.

RESPECT LIFE

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR ABORTED CHILDREN

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13
FOLLOWING THE 9 AM MASS
MARIAN GROTTO

We will gather outside at the Marian Grotto and the Innocents grave marker for a short prayer service. By participating in the National Day of Remembrance, you are helping to humanize our aborted brothers and sisters and deepening your own commitment to ending the injustice of abortion.

For more information, contact Jim Holsinger at jimholsing@yahoo.com.

The first National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children was held in September 2013 on the 25th anniversary of the solemn burial of the earthly remains of some 1,500 abortion victims in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Over 100 memorial services were held across the United States, and it was clear this should become an annual event. It is normally held on the second Saturday of September.

Pro-lifers should be visiting these grave sites, and other memorial sites dedicated to aborted babies, as a regular part of their pro-life witness. Especially now that Roe v. Wade has been overturned, our country must continue to mourn the millions of children killed by abortion as we work state by state to extend legal protection to children in the womb.

Visiting these grave sites and memorial markers also offers hope and healing to women who have had abortions and people who have been hurt by abortion such as fathers and grandparents who were never allowed to grieve the death of a child hurt by abortion.

DOCTOR-ASSISTED SUICIDE ABANDONS VULNERABLE INDIVIDUALS

Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die; they want to escape what they perceive to be an intolerable situation, and they inaccurately believe that suicide is their only way out. The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, "Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?"

"Every Suicide is Tragic"*

Congregation Beth Tikvah

August 28, 2025

St. Andrew Parish
1899 McCoy Rd.
Columbus, OH 43220

Dear Msgr. Maloney,

It is with a heavy heart we write to you after the tragic and horrific attack at the Annunciation Catholic Church and School earlier this week in Minneapolis. No child should ever be attacked at school and no person should be attacked in their house of worship.

Sadly, those of us in the Jewish community know all too well the pain and sadness of losing community members in houses of worship. We are too familiar with the fear of being attacked because of our faith. In moments like these, we need to stand together as faith communities. We stand with you and support your congregation at this time.

May we work all work together to build a day when everyone will recognize the divine holiness inherent within every human being. The Congregation Beth Tikvah community stands with you today in solidarity as the Catholic world mourns the loss of two of its beloved community members and prays for the healing of those who are recovering. May the memory of the righteous be for a blessing.

With blessing,

Rabbi Rick Kellner

Rabbi Karen Martin

The Mass

"Do This in Remembrance of Me"

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 80: Personal Thanksgiving

Let us go forth! But not so fast that we forget to give thanks! Another important part of taking in the graces received in the Mass is "the personal thanksgiving." According to the Diocese of Peoria, "While nothing is officially noted in the rubrics, the importance of making a personal thanksgiving after Mass has been emphasized by many saints throughout the history of the Church. It is so important that the clergy are advised by canon law to make such an act. We never rush saying goodbye to someone we love. How true this should be with our Lord whom we have just praised and adored at the Holy Mass" (A Study of the Mass, p. 21).

Fr. Stefano Manelli notes saints who emphasized the personal thanksgiving after Mass. For example, St. Louis de Montfort "used to remain after Mass for thanksgiving at least a half hour, and he would not permit any need or assignment to serve as a reason for omitting it. He said, 'I would not give up this hour of thanksgiving even for an hour of Paradise.'" In another story, Fr. Manelli explains, "A fellow sister asked St. Bernadette, 'How are you able to remain for so long in thanksgiving after Holy Communion?' The saint replied, 'I consider that it is the holy Virgin who gives me the Baby Jesus. I receive Him. I speak to Him and He speaks to me'" (Jesus Our Eucharistic Love: Eucharistic Life Exemplified by the Saints, pp. 46, 113).

Lingering with Our Lord

Further exhorting the virtues of a personal thanksgiving, Charles Belmonte teaches that, "in Communion, Jesus not only comes into our arms, or sits by our side, but also enters and dwells in our hearts. Thus, our heart ought to glow in the same way that the hearts of the disciples on the road to Emmaus burnt within them as Christ spoke and explained the Scriptures to them. It is natural that we desire to remain a few minutes in prayer and thanksgiving after the Mass. The Church recommends this practice. Sometimes, we will be talking with Christ. At other times, we will say nothing at all; we will simply look at him and he will look at us. We should also know that Christ's Body and Blood remain in us after communion as long as the accidents of the bread and wine remain as such. As soon as our bodily processes change these accidents, Christ's real presence ceases to be. Nevertheless, we continue living in his Mystical Body. While Christ is really present inside us in the form of the consecrated species, we must be grateful and gracious hosts to him... St. Josemaria Escriva thus advises us: 'Do not leave the Church almost immediately after receiving the sacrament. Surely you have nothing so important to attend to that you cannot give our Lord ten minutes to say thanks. Let's not be mean. Love is paid for with love'" (Understanding the Mass, pp. 200-1).

Ideas to Pray in Thanksgiving after Mass

Need some further ideas of what to pray in personal thanksgiving? Belmonte continues, "The content of our thanksgiving will be just a continuation of the sentiments and affections we have felt—or tried to foster in ourselves—during the Mass, but perhaps in an atmosphere of greater intimacy this time. Sometimes, acts of faith, hope and charity addressed to the Three Divine persons will spurt from our soul. At other times, we will maintain an intimate dialogue with Jesus, our divine Friend who will purify and transform us. Or perhaps, we will just be sitting still, in silent adoration, in the same manner that a mother watches over her son who has fallen asleep. According to St. Teresa, there is no other time than thanksgiving after Mass when we can so easily enrich our soul with virtues, or so rapidly advance to a high degree of perfection. We should not look for prayers or formulas, if we do not find any need for them. But if we realize they can help us, we should overcome our laziness (say, to open our missal and read the prayers for thanksgiving there). [...] We should remember to pray for all those who cannot be with us in this celebration because they do not share the faith of the Church." Belmonte reminds us that prayers to our Blessed Mother and the saints can be helpful, quoting from Pope St. Paul VI: "May the most Blessed Virgin Mary, from whom Christ the Lord took flesh that 'is contained, offered, received' in this sacrament under the appearances of bread and wine, and may all the saints of God and especially those who were more inflamed with ardent devotion toward the divine Eucharist, intercede with the Father of mercies so that this common belief in the Eucharist and devotion to it may give rise among all Christians to a perfect unity of communion that will one day flourish" (Understanding the Mass, pp. 201-3; Mysterium Fidei, 75).

No doubt, after Mass we will be excited to go out into the world! Perhaps we have people we are going to visit or gatherings or events we will attend. Hopefully, we don't get in such a hurry that we omit the thanksgiving, a wonderful opportunity to solidify the fruits of the Mass!

For Reflection:

1. If you are not in the habit of making a personal thanksgiving after Mass, commit to this practice. If you attend Mass with others, share this commitment with them and invite them to participate. Allow this time of personal prayer to help foster spontaneous intimacy with the Lord, or make use of composed prayers if you find them helpful.
2. Extend the practice of personal thanksgiving at the end of Mass to other areas of your life by concluding other events or interactions with a moment to acknowledge and give thanks to God for the fruits of this time, whether silently and privately in your own heart or in union with those open to your devotion.
