MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday, following the 7:30 a.m. and 9:15 a.m. Masses at which I was the celebrant, several parishioners shared that they appreciated my homily. One parishioner even suggested that I make the homily available in print so that others in our parish could read it as well. I took that suggestion to heart. So, for those who were unable to hear it at Mass—and for anyone who would like to reflect on it again—I am sharing my homily from last Sunday below.

Today, we are told by the prophet Isaiah: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts."

Today, I want to consider our thoughts, and what we can do to raise up our thoughts to be more like God's.

At the beginning of Mass, in the penitential rite, we acknowledge our sins, and we say, "I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts, and in my words; in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do..." All of us commit sins of thought, word, and deed. Many sins of word and deed begin with a sin of thought.

Impure thoughts become desires, which in turn may become impure actions. Thoughts of envy or jealousy can quickly turn into hostility and detraction. Brooding over perceived slights or injuries can lead to a refusal to forgive or be reconciled. These are just a few examples. I also think many of us sin in our thoughts by thinking only about ourselves and our own needs and desires, our own worries, concerns, and wants of the immediate moments. Maybe we think about something that makes us feel unhappy or unfulfilled, and we, by constantly dwelling on it, make ourselves miserable.

I think all of us need to raise up our thoughts.

If our mind is in the gutter, raise it up!

If it is sunk in the swamp of despair, get it out!

If it is scrutinizing others' sinfulness, turn it around and scrutinize yourself and be freed of your hypocrisy.

We need to get out of the depths and go up to the heights!

Isaiah also says: "Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the Lord for mercy, to our God who is generous in forgiving."

St. Paul once gave the Philippians some advice to help them elevate their thoughts: "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." (Phil. 4:8)

Let us therefore strive to make our thoughts more like the thoughts of our all-good, merciful, and compassionate God.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

P.S. Mark your calendar for the Annual Pet Blessing next Sunday, Oct. 4. I look forward to seeing you and your pets at 3:00 p.m. on the rectory lawn.

St. Joseph, defender of life,
pray for us!

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home.

As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

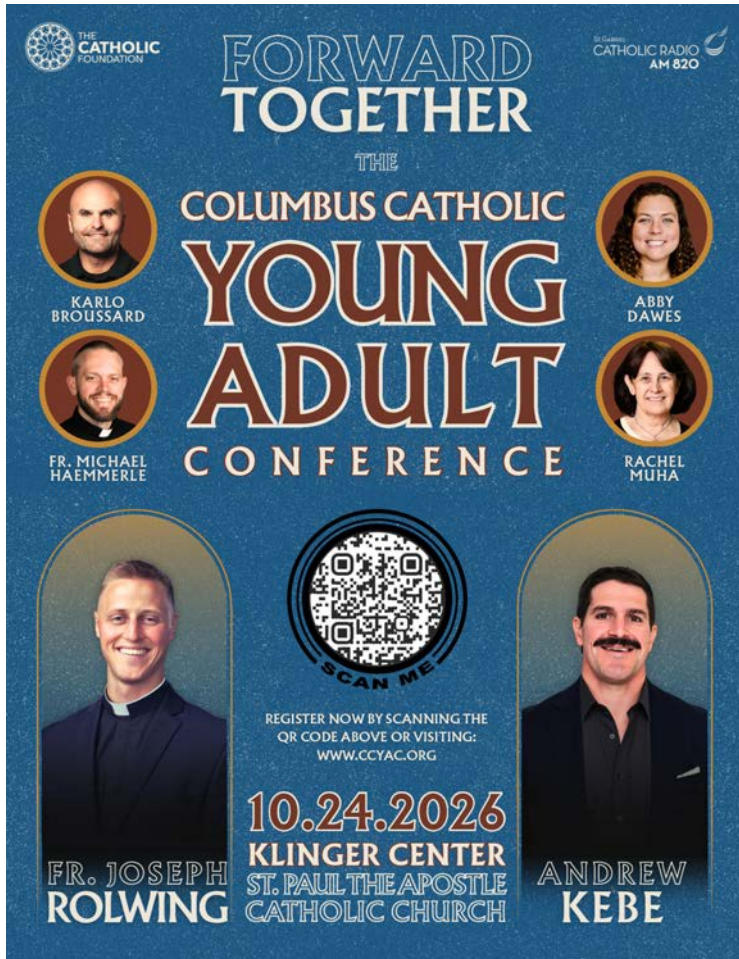

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life – especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.

Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.

Amen.
