MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This year, the Solemnity of All Saints falls on Sunday, Nov. 1 (today), which gives us double the reason to celebrate, because it is both the Lord's day and the day when we honor all the holy men and women who have lived holy lives throughout the centuries. This feast is a reminder to us that we are all called to be saints, called to be holy.

On this holy day, I ask each of you to think about where you are on your life's journey, and how far you have progressed along the path of holiness. If you are honest with yourself, you may realize that you still have a long way to go, and depending on your age, you may begin to understand that time is short, and the possibility of achieving saintliness is looking slim. But the lives of the saints teach us that we must never give up! Holiness comes from God, not from our own efforts. And it is achieved in the ordinary moments of life. So let us never grow tired of seeking to be holy and striving to be saints.

The saints gave heroic witness to Christ during their earthly lives, and now they glorify God in heaven! We, too, sing God's praises in the Mass: Recently, we began singing the "Gloria" in a chant setting that you may find unfamiliar. This chant is taken from the Roman Missal itself. Our bishop has asked that the chants of the church be given more prominence in parish liturgies throughout the diocese. Bishop Fernandes will be visiting St. Andrew Parish and School on November 30 and will be the celebrant for the 8:30 a.m. Mass for the Feast of St. Andrew, our patron saint. This will be an all-school Mass, and I am delighted to welcome Bishop Fernandes for this happy occasion. I also asked that our students learn the chant Gloria so that we could all sing it on the feast day. I have long desired to have our congregation know and sing this chant setting at Mass, and Bishop's upcoming visit was the opportunity to fulfill this. My hope is that, once we learn this, it will become as familiar as the other chants that we already know and love.

I have some happy news to share with you. I have adopted a dog! Her name is Melba, and she is a three-year-old dachshund mix. I adopted her from Columbus Humane and brought her home on Friday, Oct. 23. As you probably recall, I lost my dog Mabel back in June when I had to have her put to sleep. I decided that when I started to miss having a dog rather than missing Mabel, I would then think about adopting another dog. That time came about mid-October, and within a few days, I found Melba. She is enjoying her new home and she and Melanie (our cat) are already friends!

I've included a picture of Melba so you can see what she looks like. I am very happy to have a dog in my life again!

Let us pray for the souls of the faithful departed during this month of November. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney
