MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, I would like to speak a little bit about prayer, specifically the Lord's Prayer, which we usually call the "Our Father."

The Our Father is one of the first prayers we learned by heart when we were children, along with the Hail Mary and the Glory Be. We recite the Our Father frequently. How many times do you think you have repeated those words over your lifetime? We say at least six Our Fathers every time we pray the Rosary. We say the Our Father in our morning prayer, our evening prayer, and at every Mass before Communion. You may be asked to pray one or more Our Fathers for your penance when you go to Confession.

We should pray this prayer often because it is the prayer that Jesus Himself taught His disciples when they asked Him,"Lord, teach us to pray." And it is only because this prayer was "taught by the Savior's command and formed by divine teaching" that we have the audacity to address God as "Our Father."

The words "Our Father," coming as they do from Jesus' own lips, are an inexhaustible source of meaning and profound wisdom. These words deserve to be prayed with attention and reverence whenever we say them, but especially at Mass. We should never recite them mindlessly or hurriedly or in a perfunctory manner. We should pray these words in such a way that we fail to pay attention to the meaning of the words. We should pray with confidence and trust.

Perhaps you saw the news about the terrible crash of a private jet in Florida in early November. The jet plummeted to the earth in a nose dive at a tremendous rate of speed and acceleration, crashing into the ground and erupting in a massive fireball. Everyone on board was killed. The most astonishing and gripping detail was listening to the recording of the voice of the brave young copilot as she called "Mayday," and described the plane's rapid loss of altitude. It was noted that, as the plane was about to crash, the voices of others on the plane could be heard in the background saying the Lord's Prayer! I am sure that those people, certain that they were about to die, prayed with extreme intensity and utmost fervor. I believe that their prayer was heard and answered, because they prayed "in the words Our Savior gave us."

May we strive to pray to our heavenly Father with care, attention, and intensity whenever we say the Our Father.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

P.S. Mark your calendar for Sunday, Dec. 6, at 4:00 p.m. in the Church for a beautiful Advent reflection on the Magnificat. More details to come in upcoming bulletins and ePOSTs.
